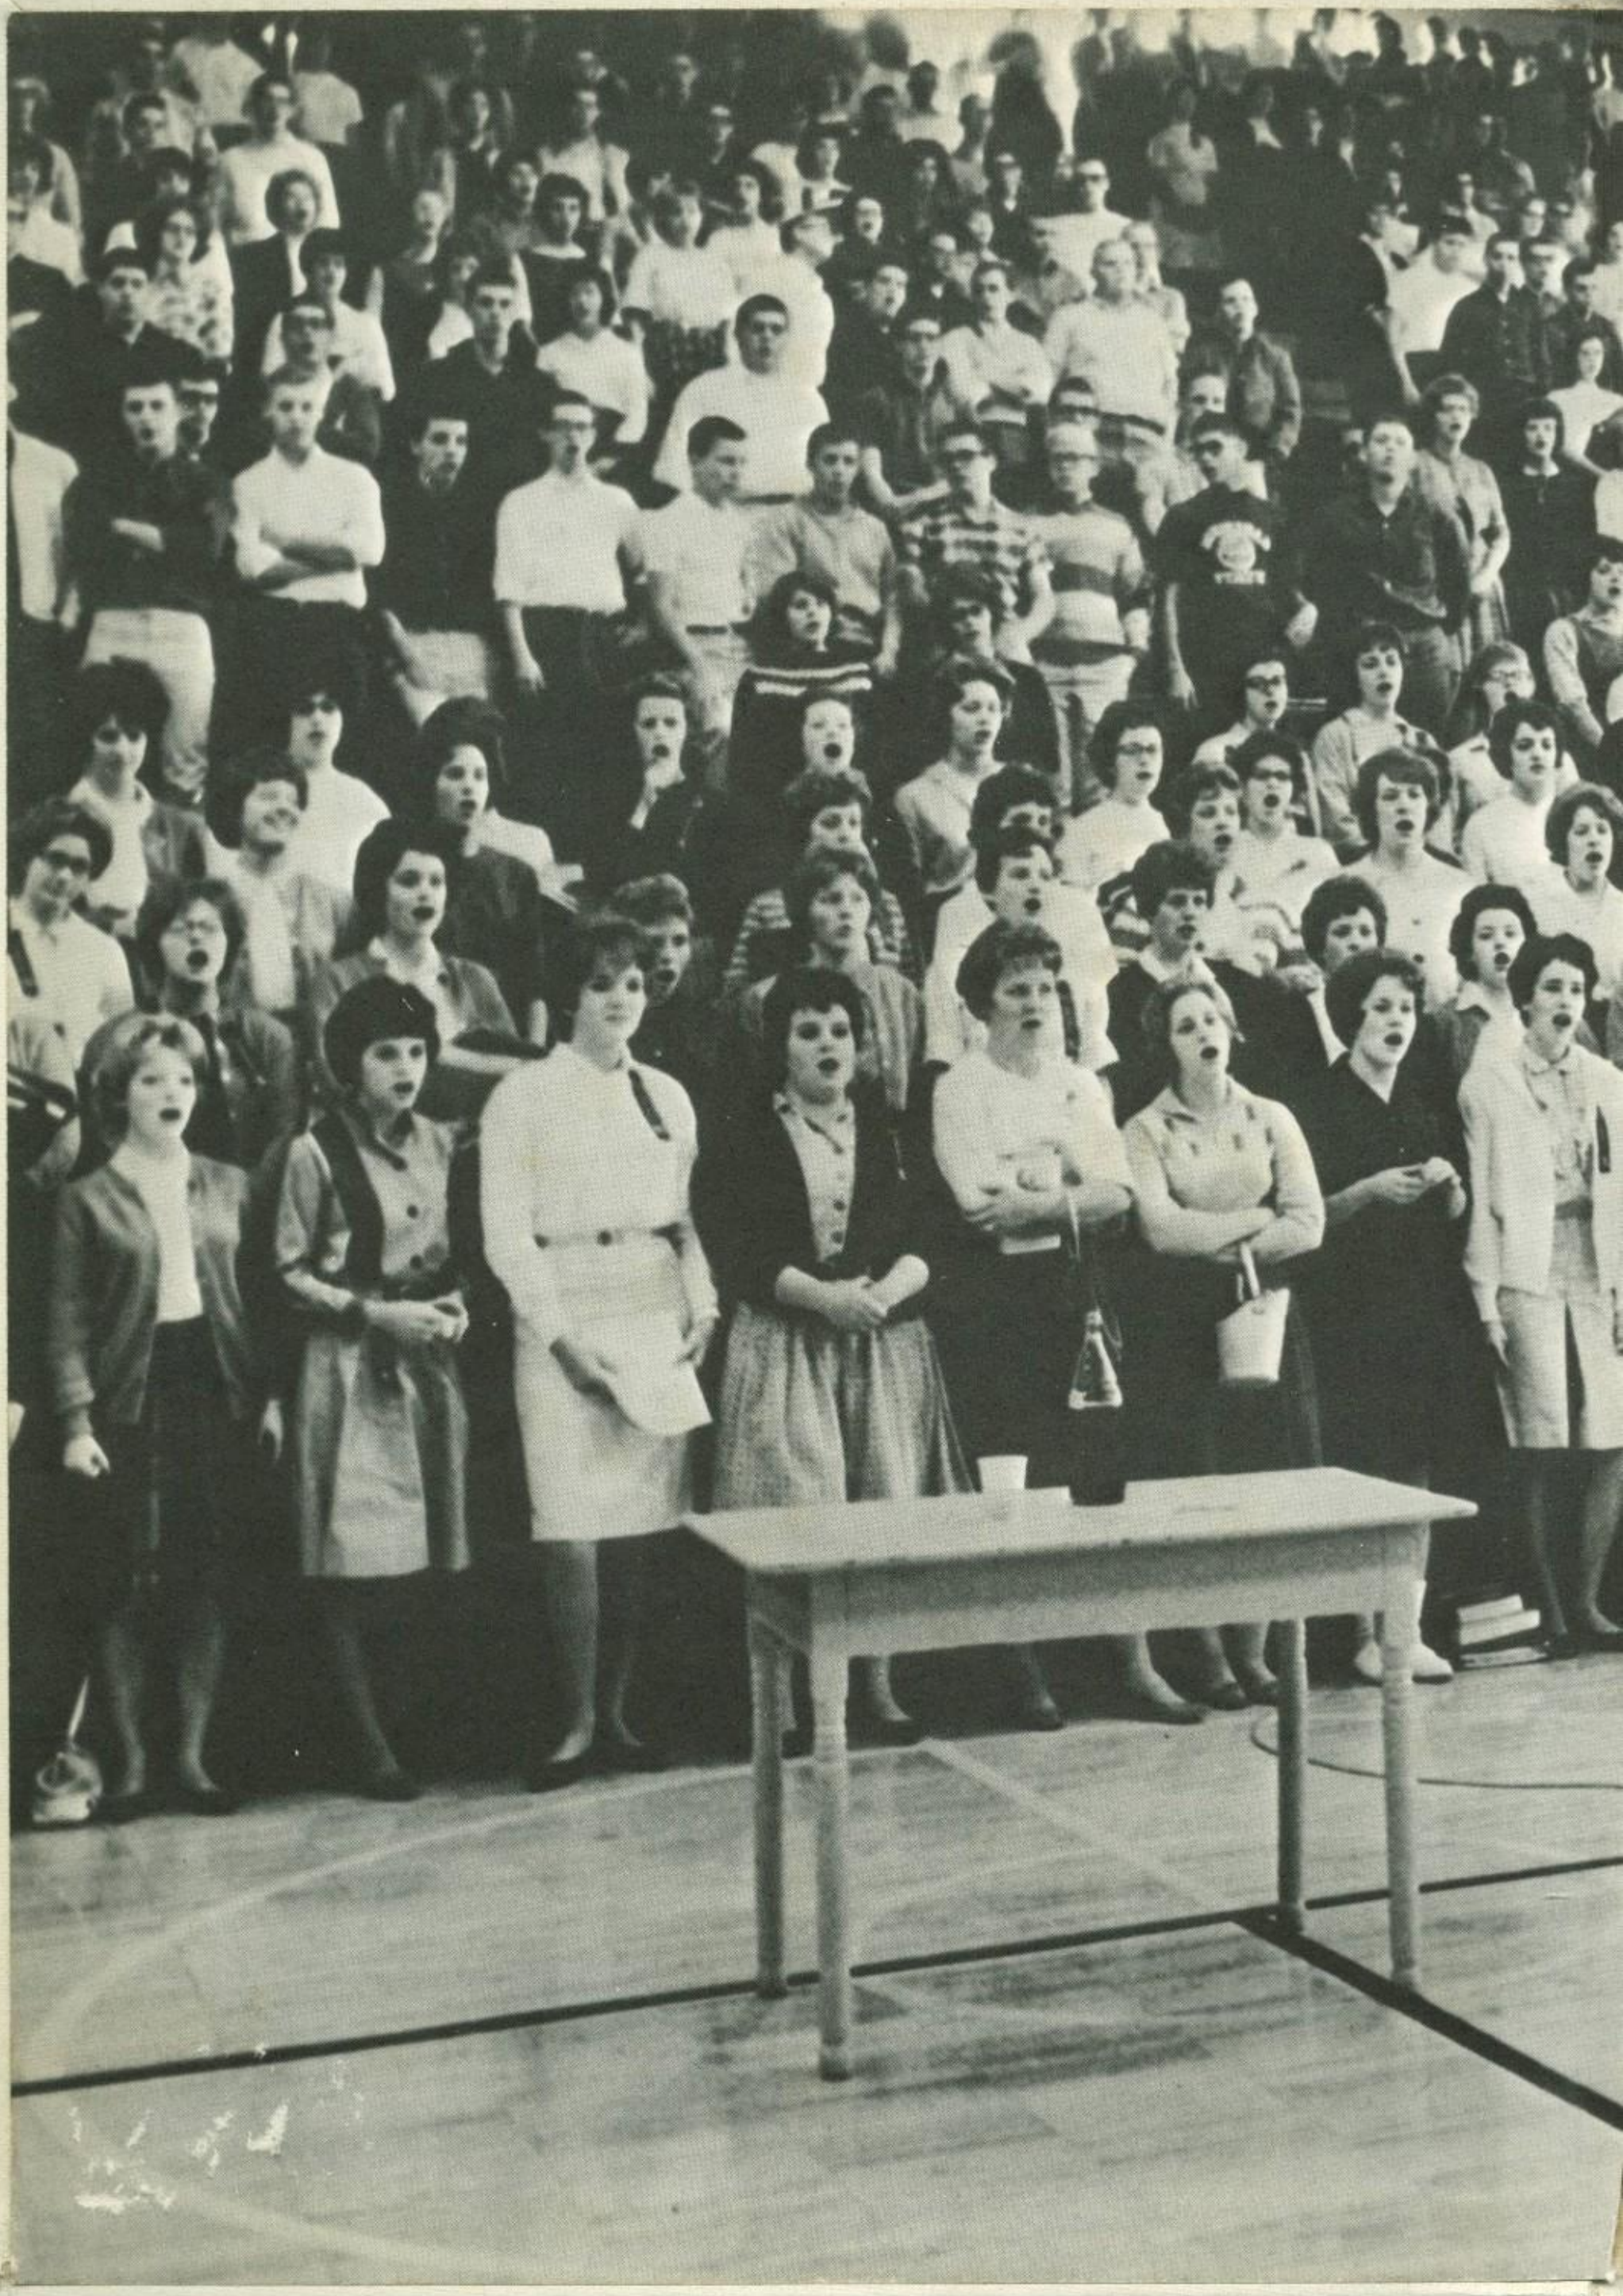
PINES



School Song!

"Every highschool has its colors . . . "

Uniting the student body in the Pep assembly finale, the students lift the school song to the rafters, as they are led by the cheerleaders.

THE PINES

Vol. LI 1963

Traverse City Senior High School
Traverse City, Michigan

Foreword —

The pine tree, a member of a family containing over four hundred species, has its own qualities. The student body, is made up of a thousand students. Each of these students, like the pine tree, possesses qualities of the pine, each striving to stand tall and sturdy. The student body as a whole will grow together, but each member will be an individual. The 1963 Pines, celebrates the student body in working together as a whole, yet as groups and as individuals.

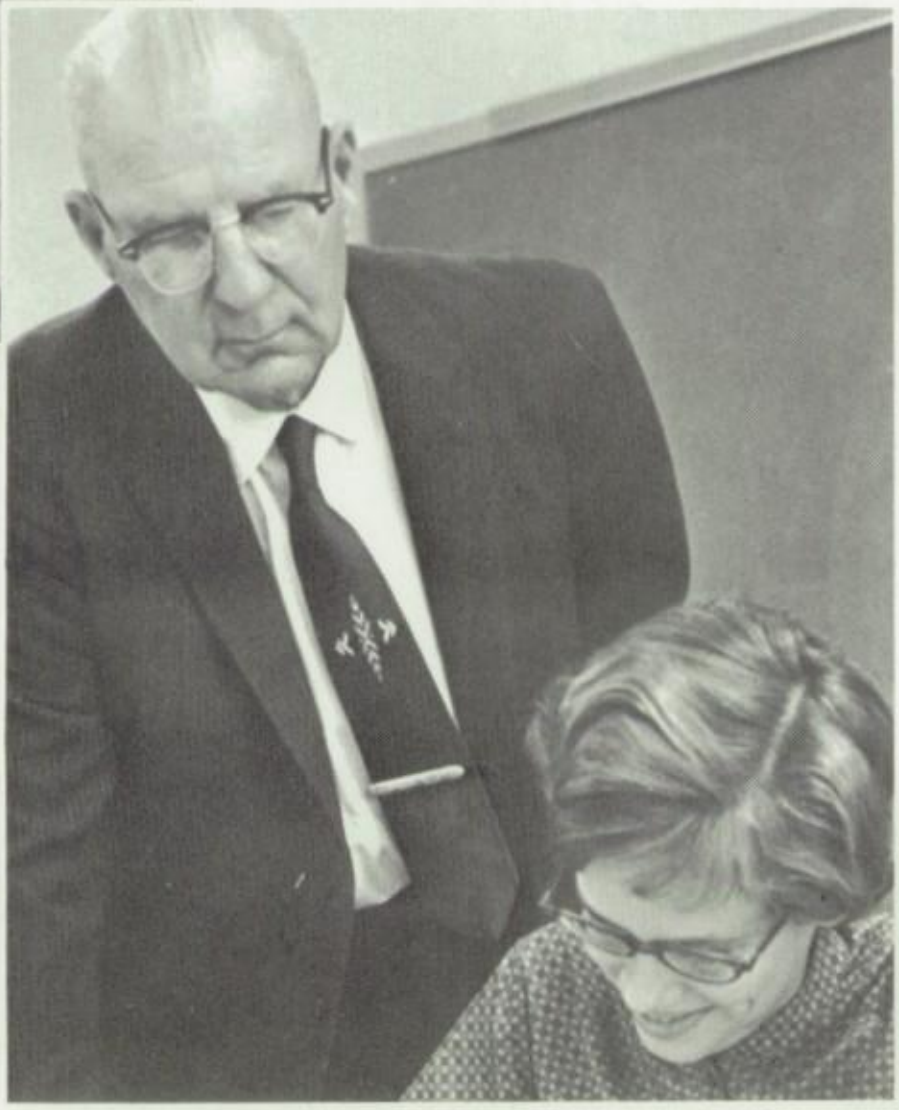
Dedication —

For thirty-five years one individual has been preparing students for the future. He is a man dedicated, not only to the teaching profession, but to his students. He has given portions of his life to three levels of teaching--grade, school, junior high, and senior high. For twenty years he has been teaching the subject he loves--mathematics. Many mornings before and after school he spent time in helping students. Moreover, many times either he or he and his wife could be seen in a busload of students going to football or basketball games, or chaperoning a school dance.

Because of his patience, kindness and understanding of students, we the class of 1963, dedicate the fifty-first Pines to you, Mr. Jesse C. Allen.



The colorful foliage of the newly-planted trees in the mall unveil the first signs of fall.

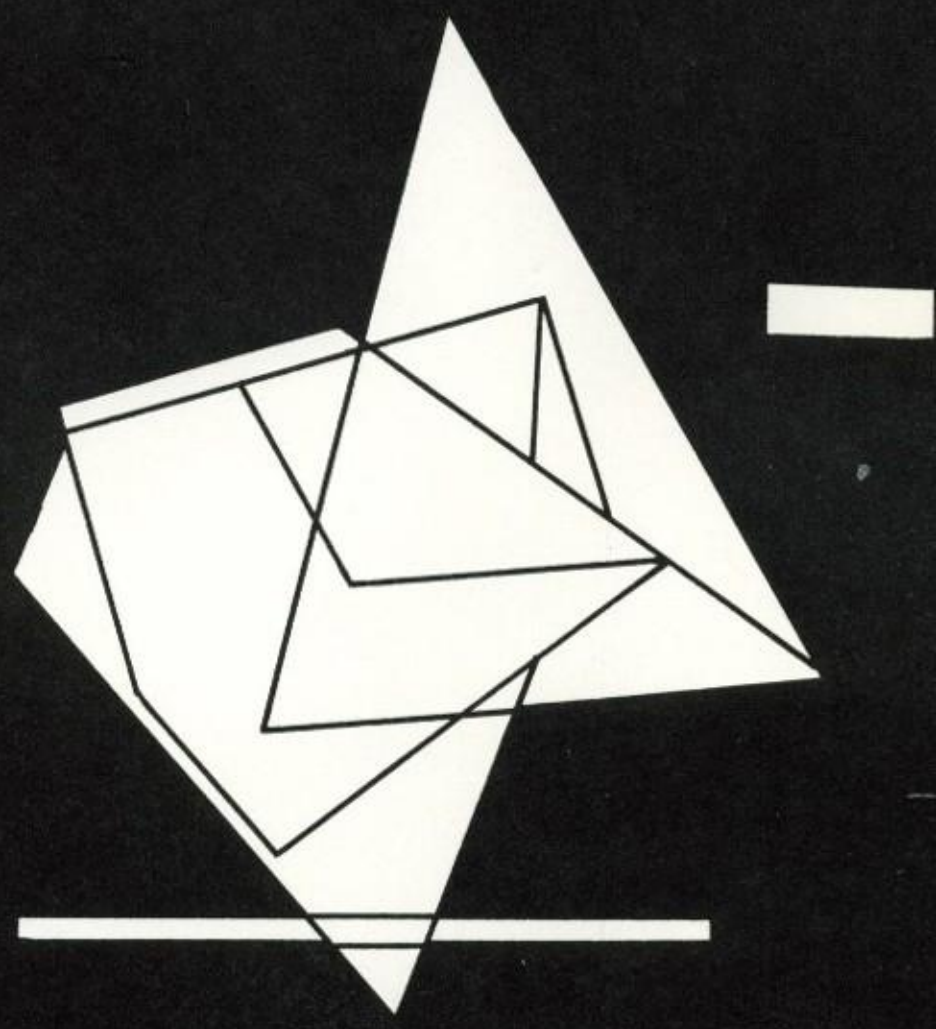
Spring winds blow gently in the classroom, as students study diligently for semester exams.

Activities



Presenting Her Majesty

The Snake Dance, climaxed by the burning of Holland's effigy, was the kickoff for the annual homecoming. After an exciting first half, the band marched on the field to play the fanfare for her majesty. The suspense was finally broken when Queen Barb Novak and her court, Barb Balyeat, Joanne Komerska, Marilyn Michalski, and Bonnie Stults were introduced. Senior Vice-President Ed Erlandson presented the queen with a bouquet of red roses. Queen Barb then reigned at the Homecoming Dance following the victorious game.

Heading TCHS' student body is Governor John Bowers.

Governing Us

The first sign of school spirit was displayed during annual fall elections.

Elected to the top posts in government were Governor John Bowers and Lieutenant Governor Darryl Bell.

Guiding the seniors in their last year are President Glenn Merchant, Vice President Ed Erlandson, Secretary Pat Fisher, and Treasurer Marg Meach.

Directing the juniors are President Rick Cottom, Vice President Dick Kaley, Secretary Mary Dorman, and Treasurer Jim Milliken.

Heading the class of '65 are President Ron Heffelfinger, Vice President Len Hawley, Secretary Jeanne Bjork and Treasurer Elaine Johnson.

Breathlessly hiding from the aggressive gals, these guys make use of the mantel in hopes of escaping the inevitable capture and the visit with Marryin' Sam.

After a difficult decision, the three "best dressed" couples were announced by the chaperones. Receiving first place were Sue Hadley and Bruce Hulet; second place, Marilyn King and Gary Clem; and third place winners were Bonnie Stults and John Sebright.

Moonshine Mash

Throughout Maidens' Week the gals catered to the wishes of their guys.

The annual Sadie Hawkins tradition was highlighted Friday night by MOONSHINE MASH, sponsored by the BLACK AND GOLD.

The new cider-drinking contest was won by senior Butch Carmien.

Challenger's 20th Year

The outstanding writings of the students are published in the bi-annual issue of the Challenger. The staff, under Faculty Advisor Elizabeth Parker and Student Editor Nan Wilder, meets weekly to edit the publication.

The Challenger is divided into five sections, each with a chairman.

The Five Sections:

Book Review Chairman . . . Pat Tompkins
Light Essay Chairman . . Marg Rajkovich
Narration Chairman . . . . Ed Erlandson
Poetry Chairman . . . . . Harriet Davis
Serious Essay Chairman . . . Tom Smith

'Bee Gee' Reports All School News

The Black and Gold is under the leadership of Editor-in-Chief Teri Allen, and her staff is composed of:

EDITORS: Record Eagle--Jill Ferguson; Editorial --Lynn Richards; News--Teri Lee Allen; Features--Candye Springstead; Sports--Bob Denison.

CIRCULATION MANAGER: Jerry Hendges.

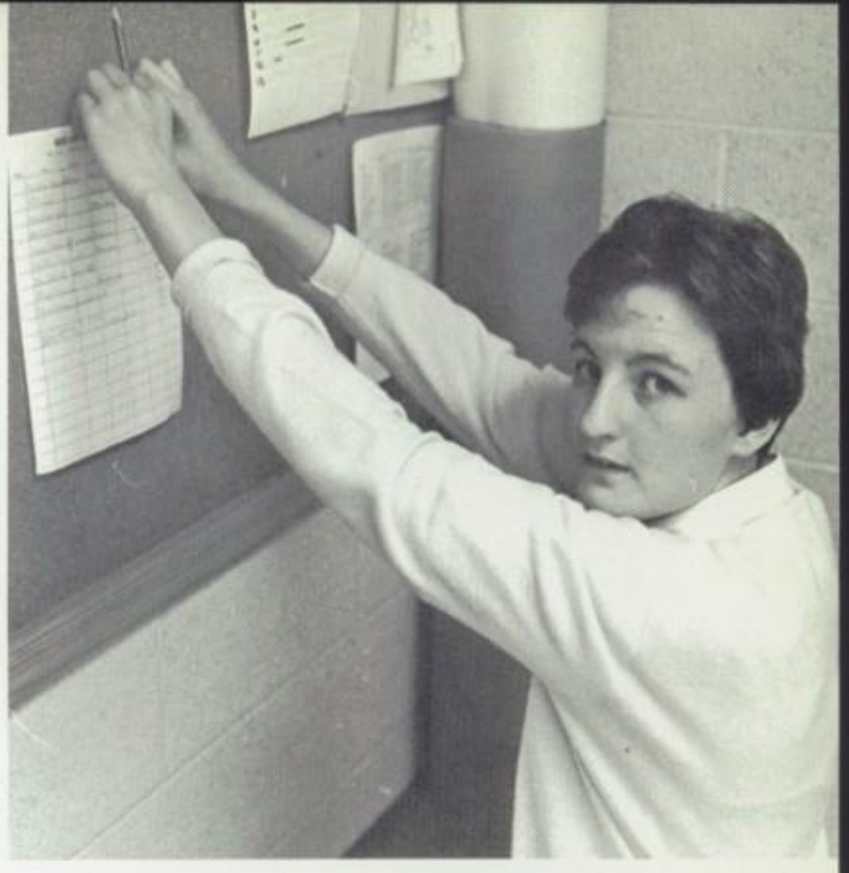
ADVISORS: A.V. Williams and Mrs. Lucille Clawson.

For those unable to be in the Black and Gold class, there is an auxiliary staff--the Press Club.

The bi-weekly paper, with the widest circulation ever, received a "1st" in the Quill and Scroll international ratings last year.



Putting up the assignment sheet is Editor-in-Chief Teri Lee Allen.

A Day with Noby

Nabuko Sagawa, known to all as "Noby," is our foreign exchange student from Nara, Japan. Her American family is the Hunsbergers'.

Noby is a member of the senior class and one of her favorite hours of the day is choir. Besides singing she enjoys playing the piano and dancing.

"This American food is really great," says Noby.

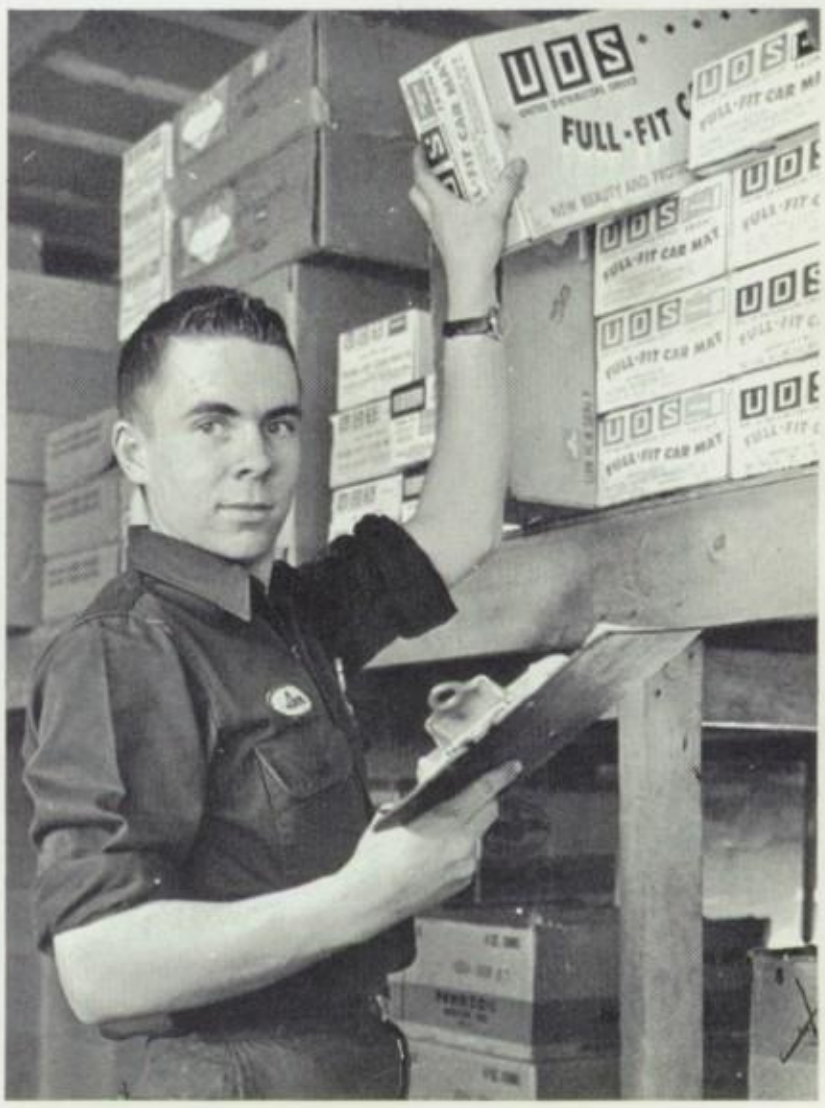
Karen Piasecki acquires experience in office routine.

Co-Opers at Work

Many of our T.C.H.S. students are working part-time while still getting four hours of school each day. These students belong to the co-operative training program under the direction of Mr. Herbert Olson. The girls work as secretaries, nurses aides, and sales girls. The boys work in garages and manufacturing plants of the city. These students gain valuable experience that will aid them in their post-graduate years. The program gives them an insight into what a future career might entail. When these students graduate, they will have a sense of pride, for they will know that they have obtained education in two fields: academics, and valuable working experience.

June Rosinski and Sally Tezak work as nurse aids.

Don Thiel fills in an order while he works at his part-time job as a co-operative training student.



We've Got It, Now Keep It . . .

At pep assemblies, football games, and basketball games, the Varsity Cheerleaders were a shining example of T.C.H.S.'s pep. Leading the cheering body were cheerleaders Lana Bromley, Shirley Cavitch, Debbie Mc Call, Carolyn Rollo and Marcia Stehower.

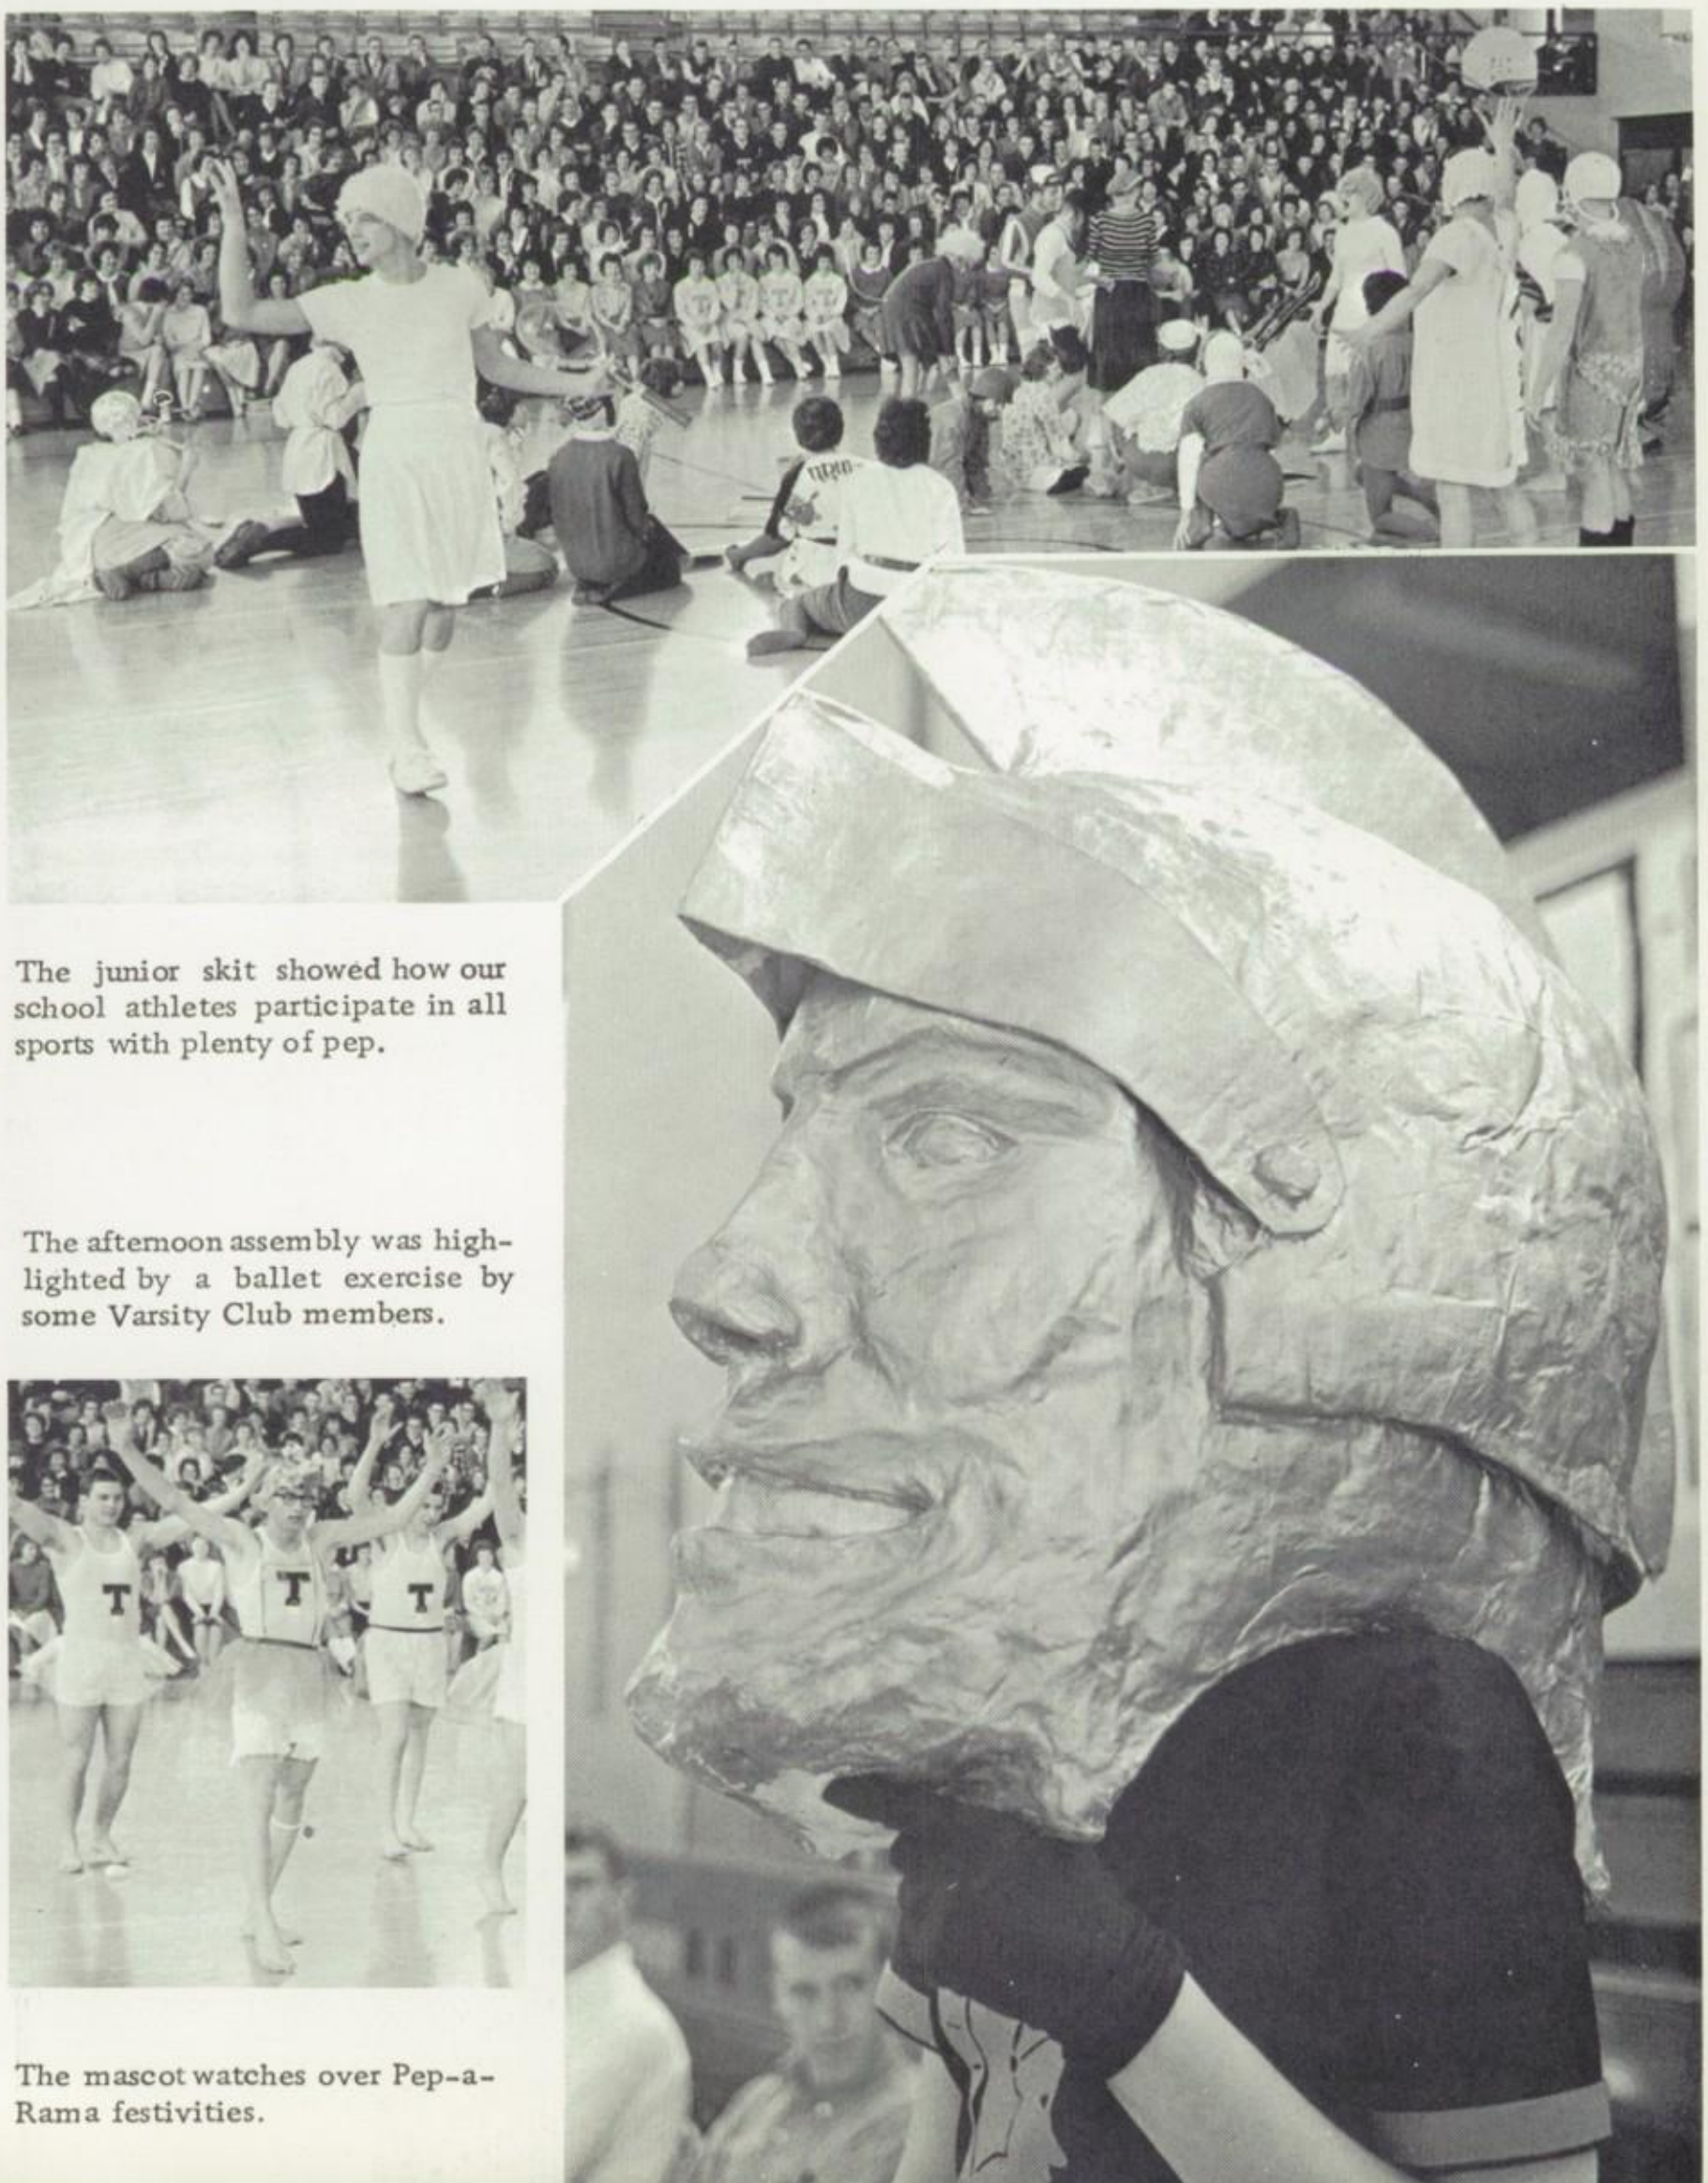
The Pep! the Pep! the Pep!

The fifth annual Pep-a-Rama week, February 11-15, was climaxed by the Grand Haven game Friday night. After the presentation of the senior class's winning skit, the first place trophy for the class competition was awarded to the senior class. The juniors and sophomores tied in the number of points for second place.



The junior skit showed how our school athletes participate in all sports with plenty of pep.

The afternoon assembly was highlighted by a ballet exercise by some Varsity Club members.

JUNIOR PROM OF 1962

Lorna Stulen and Kin Lynch relax in the cabaret style furniture. Lorna, contrary to Kin, is a bit camera shy.

On a lovely night in May the guests of the Junior class were "whisked" away on a magic carpet to a tropical island. Bali-Hai gave them a romantic picture of palm trees and a lovely garden accented with a flowing fountain. To add that extra touch, favor girls were seen in mumus and leis. Thatched roofed huts were the background for Harry Hibbard's River Boat Seven and the chaperones.

Looking down from silver stairs one caught his first glance at "Misty Pink Soiree." Through the use of excellent lighting the ballroom was transformed into a misty pink paradise.

Groups of Christmas trees and angels contributed to the Christmas air. Favor girls in soft pink served refreshments. The couples danced to Harry Hibbard's "Big Sound," and departed with unforgettable memories of "Misty Pink Soiree."

Gals Behind

The Pep Club, largest organization on the campus, provides plenty of spirit and efficient help in various school functions throughout the school year. It keeps continuously busy by selling at games, organizing pep assemblies, sponsoring the annual Trojan Tromp, staging award banquets, and taking trips to Trojan games. The council, composed of the officers, cheerleaders, and representatives from each class, plan Mom and Dad's Night, Homecoming, and the annual Pep Club banquet in the spring which climaxes the year's activities.

The Guys

President Barb Novak presides over a Pep Club Council meeting. The members--1st ROW, Linda Wigman, Pat Hilty, and Lorna Stulen. 2nd ROW, Carolyn Rollo, Sue Noakes, Sherry Milliken, and Helen Hunsberger. 3rd ROW, Debbie McCall, Carol Chance, Judy VanArkel, and Ann Raftshol. 4th ROW, Advisor Norman Pollman, Lynn Richards, Jean Lievense, and Lana Bromley. 5th ROW, Marcia Stehower and Shirley Cavitch.

Speaking to group is Teri Lee Allen, a member of the Red Cross Council.

Placing a strong responsibility toward society, the American Red Cross has been serving not only the campus of TCHS but also the whole community of Traverse City. The Junior Red Cross can be commended as an organization with a purpose, a will, and a spirit of giving to others, particularly in hospital service.

Specialization

Growing in leaps and bounds, the Ski Club has added spirit and enthusiasm to the campus of TCHS. Teaching beginning and intermediate skiers is a project the Ski Club hoped to undertake this past winter. This plan helped the beginners who, because of their age, were not eligible for community lessons.

Trips were taken to Nubs Nob and an undisclosed area and also two ski outs at our local hills. President John Sebright and Sponsor Philip Krull headed the organization, which secured special rates and privileges for the $1 season fee per member. Total membership reached nearly one hundred.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization open to all those students who are interested in agriculture. The Traverse City chapter is but one of some 240 clubs in the state of Michigan.

Delegates are sent every year to a state convention in Lansing and our T.C. Chapter has an outstanding record in the state for a program in soil conservation which TCHS can be very proud of. Sponsor was Mr. Wilbur C. McMath and President Terry Lautner. Dan Dohm and Don Bugai won individual prizes at the Crop Show in November, Tom Parker and Jim Panek taking seconds and Terry Gore a reserve title. The club sponsored the after-Heights game basketball dance and members were also active in holding gym nights for the chapter.

For the Future

The Junior Engineering Training group or as it is better known as, the Jets Club, has the sole objective of promoting an interest in engineering and technology. The club this year was divided into three groups consisting of astronomy, electronics and chemistry with each group having a project to complete. Physics Instructor Robert Elliott headed the group, which took field trips to highlight the year.

SCHOOL GOVERNOR JOHN BOWERS presides over Student Council meeting.

The Student Council is organized to develop good attitudes and relationships in our school government. Council members work progressively and harmoniously for the interest of the student body. Representatives include students who are chosen in their first hour classes, class officers, and the Core Council. Some of the projects that were undertaken this year include an exchange student program, placing magazines for student use in the study halls, annual Bundle Day, inter-conference council of L.M.A.C. schools, and an earlier meeting time, 7:45 a.m. Tuesdays, to conduct more business. Tom Fivenson headed a committee to secure a new school emblem, to be used on a school seal and flag.

Learning Through

Core Council

Speaking to group is president Linda Luick. J. Shear, S. Horn, advisor Miss Geraldine Pagel, D. Manty, S. Bowman, A. Mills, P. Newbauer, and B. Hulett, were present at this bi-weekly meeting in room 304.

Providing leadership and professional attitudes, the John Dewey Chapter of the Future Teachers of America extends the opportunities to examine the possibilities of teaching for a career.

Projects undertaken by this group of industrious students include a cadet teaching program, the sponsoring of a school dance, a program of guest speakers, films, sectional and state meets with other FFA chapters, and scholarships in education publicity.

Participation

The French Choir was informally organized this year to give first and second year French students an opportunity to further their knowledge and understanding of the language through songs. Although the group only met once a week under the direction of French teacher, Mrs. Gertrude Onker, they were successful in learning several folk songs and Christmas carols.

FRENCH CHOIR members who are diligently practicing a French Christmas song include in FRONT ROW; Mrs. Onker, advisor; L. Wilson, P. Auerbach, C. Hills, C. Spencley, K. Donnick, L. Wigman, C. Barrett, S. Drulard, A. Johnston, S. Hagleberg, J. Ealy. SECOND ROW: A. Dennos, M. Green, N. Merrick, K. Schichtel, S. Noakes, A. McMath, C. Button, C. Adams, J. Springer.

The National Honor Society was founded to recognize those senior and junior students, who excell in scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Students with a 90% or better scholastic average, who wish to enter the society, submit applications with final selection being made by the organization. Initiations are held twice a year to honor new members. This year's projects include candy and cup-cake sales to raise money for sending senior members to Chicago.

Journalistic geniuses? Well, perhaps they are--these International Quill and Scroll journalism honorary members and candidates for the TCHS Elizabeth P. Morey chapter.

Membership was limited to those holding key positions in the three publications--Black and Gold, Pines, and Challenger.

Highlights of the year were the two initiations at the end of each semester, and sponsorship of the annual publications banquet in May honoring workers on all staffs, and inviting freshmen from the Junior High Watchbird staff. Juniors were yet to be named for the May banquet, but from the juniors chosen last year Nan Wilder was elected President, Pam Burrows and Teri Lee Allen were assistants, and John Sebright and Becky Trager filled out the holdovers. Seniors elected first semester were Jill Ferguson, Ed Erlandson, Beth Perkett, Marge Rajkovich, and William G. Smethells.

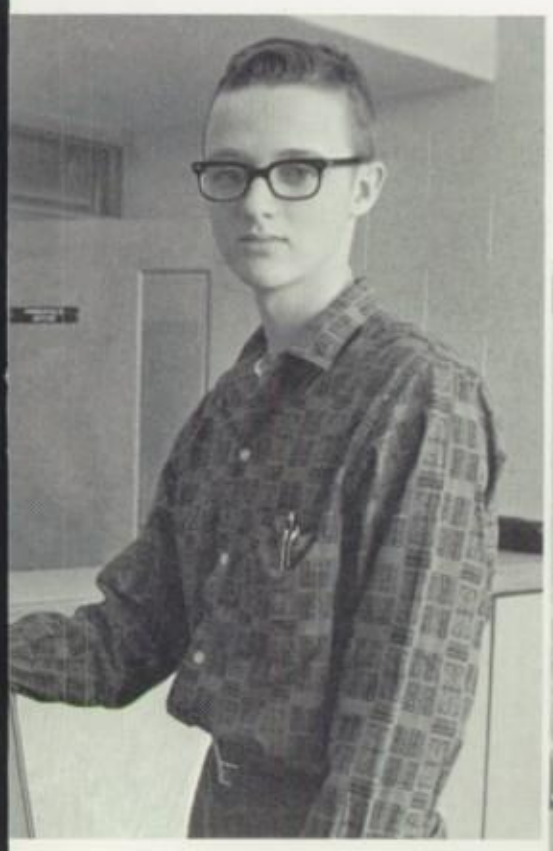
President Carol Spenceley discusses new assignments with Press Club members.

Acting as auxiliary to the Black and Gold staff is the Press Club, which writes many articles for the TCHS paper.

Projects for the club include selling programs for all athletic events, and two special undertakings this year--a student-faculty directory, which included names and addresses of all students, freshmen through seniors; and aiding Regional Ski meet director, Russell Luttinen, in advertising and selling the February 16, Ski Meet programs.

The News Teams
Writers and Announcers Together

The Senior High School closed circuit radio station was set up this year to broadcast news, music, and special features to the students every school morning from 8:00 until 8:30. Announcers were chosen after auditioning, and alternate their jobs. Under direction of Mr. Dean Davenport, the staff gains valuable information in speech, not to mention the application of scientific knowledge in TCHS.



Members below who are preparing a morning broadcast include, SEATED: B. MacDonald, B. Burns, D. Maxson, J. Smith, S. McKasson, B. Olson, M. Bradford, T. Glazer. STANDING: D. Krouse, B. Wales, F. Left: Bruce Olson has just signed off another broadcast.

Formed this year, the United Nations Club is TCHS's answer to the President's plea for increased youth interest in the U.N. This year's program included movies, discussions, debates, and speeches by foreign representatives. The enthusiasm shown in their first year proves that America's youth is interested in the United Nations.

The World

Members of the club are Mr. Schubert, sponsor, Pam Thompson, Carol Adams, Paula Averbach, Becky Trager, Beth Perkett, Carol Spencely, and Jean Lievense.

The understanding of foreign affairs and countries for the promotion of better relationships between the two is the prime objective of the American Field Service. This is accomplished through the exchange of students both from America and foreign countries.

Sharon Kubesh, who qualified as the AFS candidate last year, was not placed because of the shortage of homes abroad.

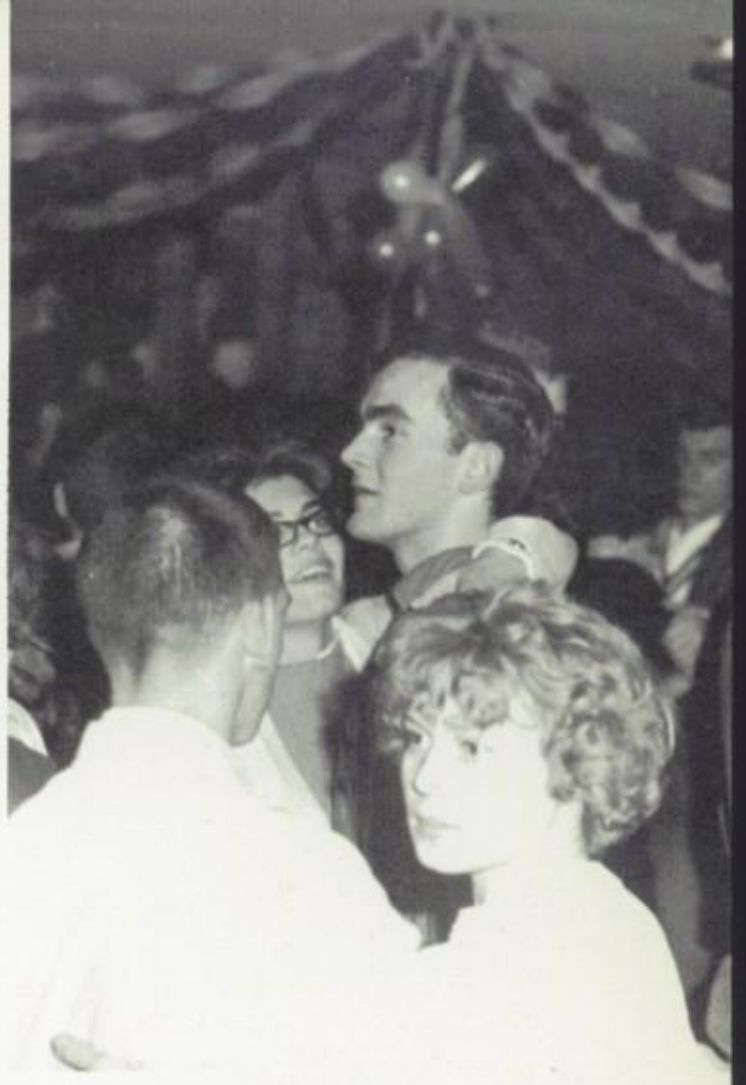
Absent are Dave Downer and Joann Bellfy.



Dancing brings stares and smiles to those who are captivated by the swinging songs.

Action, Activities, and Amusement

The Bo-Gi's prime objective is to provide recreation and entertainment for the students of Traverse City. It has staged many entertaining and worthwhile events, such as the March of Dimes, Thanksgiving, and Halloween Dances, ping-pong tournaments, and a candy sale, which was to raise money for a new proposed larger Bo-Gi.

The Varsity Club underwent a variety of changes this year, the most important of which was the abolishment of the traditional "two whacks" as an initiation for new members. Instead, club prospects were required to dress up in ridiculous costumes and wear them to their classes for a whole day.

Some of the club's projects for the year were planning for bowling parties, sponsoring dances, caroling at the State Hospital, challenging the faculty to a basketball game, and singing in the Varsity Club Chorus directed by Mr. Melvin Larimer.

Mr. James Ooley served as the Varsity Club sponsor.

Golf Team Gains Momentum As Season Progresses

Last year's golf team looked unimpressive during the early stages of the season. A late start and lack of experience gave the team a disadvantage that was hard to overcome. Before the boys had a chance to get into the swing of things they were defeated by both Mt. Pleasant and Grand Haven. They split a tri-meet with Muskegon and Muskegon Heights, losing to the Heights but defeating Muskegon. Later the squad began to play better golf, winning all of the remaining six matches. Alpena and Frankfort were both defeated twice and Muskegon and Mt. Pleasant were beaten once. In the Lake Michigan Athletic Conference meet the team placed fourth out of the six schools in competition. Later, in the State Regionals, the boys added to their accomplishments an impressive fifth place out of 14 competing teams.

These "handsome fellers" are the returning lettermen who will form the nucleus of the 1963 tennis team. All are Traverse City veterans except Jim Weaver. They are Bob Manthei, Pete Read, Jim Milliken, Jim Weaver, and Chris Batdorff.

Netmen Slowed by Heavy Competition

Last year's tennis team, which was under the supervision of a new coach, Mr. Thomas Fennell, started the season with only two returning lettermen to pace the squad. These two boys, Pete Read and Ken Gibson, formed the nucleus of the team.

During the regular season, the squad split with Alpena, both teams winning one match apiece. Leelanau defeated Traverse City twice in a pair of very close matches, and Benzonia came up with a split. Muskegon and Muskegon Heights both defeated the local squad, and a match with Holland was never completed. When the season ended the team's over-all record stood at two matches won and six lost.

Although the boys showed good team effort during the year, the Lake Michigan Athletic Conference proved to be too much for them to handle. They finished in fifth place out of the six schools competing. In the State Regionals, however, the team bounded back with a very impressive showing. Out of the eight teams taking part, Traverse City boasted a respectable fifth place.

Mr. Lyndon Salathiel, a newcomer at TCHS, will be this year's tennis coach.

Track Team Hindered by Lack of Depth

The 1962 track team was considerably larger than it had been in recent years, and for this reason it found a great many outstanding participants to carry it through the year. Traverse City managed to remain undefeated in all dual meets for the season, a feat which is to be credited directly to the fine trackmen produced by Coaches "Doc" Frank and Jim Ooley.

In the State Regionals at Saginaw, there were several boys who qualified for the state finals in Ann Arbor.

The Lake Michigan Athletic Conference did not show great promise for Traverse City. Although the meet was very close, the Trojans could only manage a fifth place out of the six schools.

The 1963 squad will be paced by 13 returning letter winners. They are John Bowers, Larry Hoppe, Eric Jones, Don Kaltenbach, Joe Neihardt, John Sebright, and Kerry Smith, all seniors; and juniors Chuck Benson, Rick Cottom, Steve Ferrell, Tom Fivenson, Dick Kraus, and Dave Wilson.

Baseball Team Shows Continuing Improvement

The 1962 baseball team, under supervision of Coaches Al Lockman and "Ike" Gillespie, turned in a fairly successful season even though the squad showed an inconsistency from game to game.

All of the boys showed a desire to win, and fortunately eight of them returned to form the core of the 1963 team. They were Butch Carmien, Ken Couturier, Dick Kucera, Glenn Merchant, and Bud Wilson, all seniors; and junior letter winners Bill Alpers, Gary Clem, and Roger White.

Cross-Country Squad Shows Promise

Mr. Robert Elliott, who replaced "Doc" Frank as the 1962 cross-country coach, started the season with only two previous letter winners to pace the squad. It was this lack of team experience which plagued the team throughout the year. Although the boys came back to win their final few meets, it was their first string of losses that led to a sixth place finish in the L.M.A.C. meet at Muskegon.

The 1962 Trojan Team

The 1962 Trojan football team started the season with twenty-one of its last year's members lost to graduation. At first this lack of experience threatened to pose a problem, but as the season progressed the boys learned to work together as a team, meeting each one of their opponents with such spirit and determination that they quickly overcame them one by one.

At first it looked as though the defending conference champions might go all the way again, but toward the latter part of the season they began to feel the pinch of their inexperience. The scores of their games were getting closer and closer, and each battle was getting harder to win. Gradually the mighty Trojans were beginning to weaken, and when they finally found themselves face to face with a strong Grand Haven squad, they plumb ran out of steam. The Trojan defense managed to hold the Bucs' offense to only two touchdowns, but the Traverse City scoreboard showed only the same. After a thrilling final quarter of play, the Trojans conceded to sharing a tie with Grand Haven, 13 to 13.

Following the Grand Haven game, the Trojans seemed to lose spirit, and when the final game of the season rolled around, they were just plain pooped! Despite a valiant effort, Traverse City was blanked by Benton Harbor 20 to 0. This loss ended the 1962 football season for TCHS.

Awards Assembly

ABOVE: Cross-Country coach Bob Elliott reads off the list of letterwinners. They were P. Boothroyd, J. Denoyer, T. Dyke, S. Ferrell, E. Jones, T. Lautner, J. Oberling, and S. Swan.

RIGHT: John Bowers and Jack Howard share the honors as Coach Bacon presents them with the 1962 Most Valuable Player Award. The boys were chosen by their teammates to receive this annual presentation.

Honors Football, Cross-Country

RIGHT: The 1962 awards assembly was honored to have Doctor Edward G. Stokes as the guest speaker. Doctor Stokes is the man responsible for keeping our Trojans in top shape.

ABOVE: Before Coach Ooley was presented with his gift from the team members, he was required to "run around the tree." If there had only been time, the boys were going to have him do "thirty good ones" also.

Traverse City vs. Benton Harbor . . .

The Game that Shattered a Dream

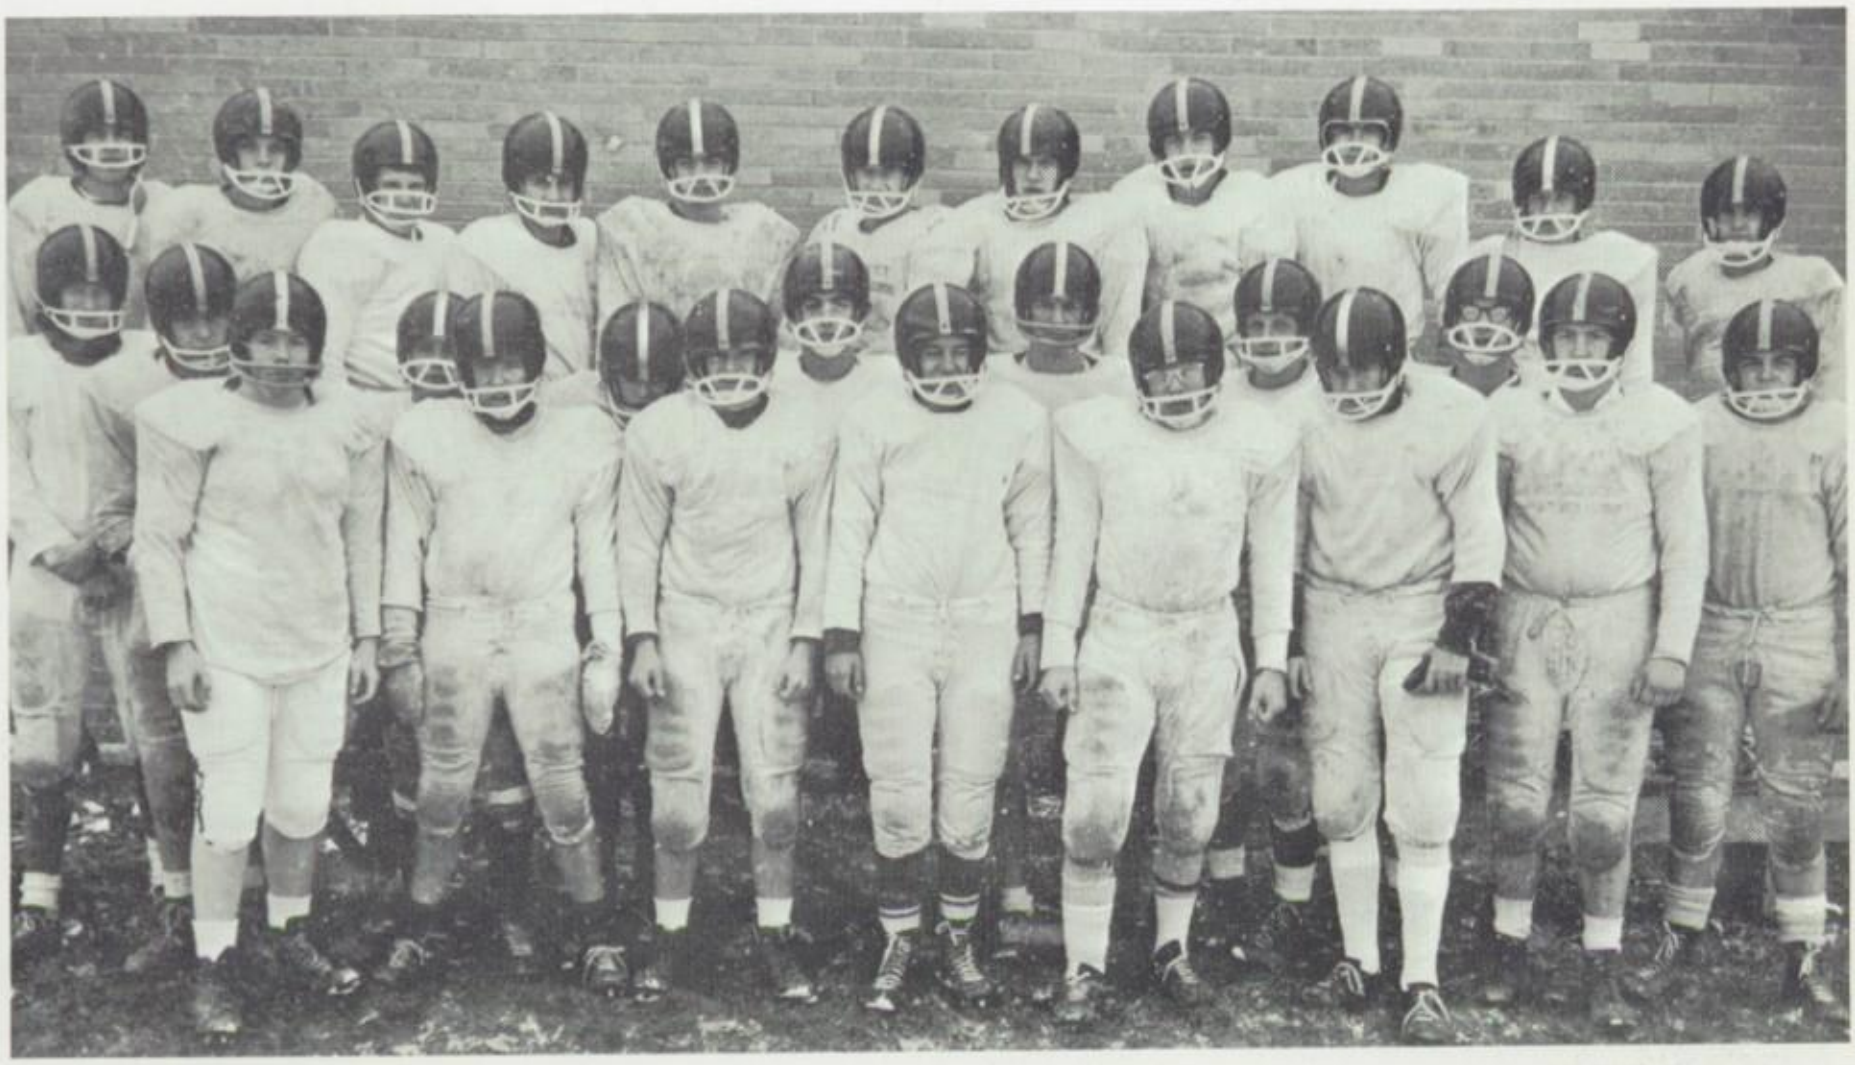
November 2, 1962, is a day that will never be forgotten on the campus of TCHS, for it was on that day that the mighty wheels of Traverse City's victory train ground to a halt. For the first time in seventeen games the unconquerable Trojans had been beaten! The players were heartbroken. The crowd was silent. "It can't be!" the fans thought. "The impossible couldn't have happened." But yet, there it stood on the scoreboard: Benton Harbor 20, Traverse City 0.

With the Trojans twenty points behind in the remaining minutes of the game, you would expect the boys to start giving up. But as this picture shows there was no letdown from the sidelines. In the eyes of every boy can be seen a desire to "keep on trying even when the going gets toughest."

Coach Bacon explains some last-minute strategy to John Bowers before sending him into the battle. During the game the field became muddy and hard to play on, but still the Trojans fought to pull themselves back into the struggle.

With beaming faces, the Benton Harbor players relive the glory that belonged to Traverse City one year ago.

Junior Varsity Squad Splits into Two Teams



BACK ROW: R. Heffelfinger, J. Evans, P. Bossardet, J. Paulos, J. Schrouder, J. Kammerer, J. Kroupa, H. Petersen, S. Zaremba, F. Pawloski, M. LeFevre. MIDDLE ROW: J. Haberlein, D. Rytkonen, B. Nelson, R. Runyon, and D. Stradinger.

After four weeks of the 1962 season had gone by, the Junior Varsity squad was split into two separate teams. One group became the regular Jay Vee squad, composed of some sophomores and juniors, and the other became an all-sophomore team, coached by Mr. Terry Ebright, and Mr. Lyndon Salathiel. The reason for the split was to give the boys a better chance to take part in some action and consequently to become more experienced.

The 1962-3 Trojan basketball team was paced by a six-man list of previous letter-winners, composed of Bill Alpers, John Bowers, Gary Clem, Ken Couturier, Bob Manthei, and Don Ringsmuth. These veterans, along with the rest of the squad, worked together to put on a display of top-flight basketball despite a "down" season. Throughout the year the boys showed themselves to be true athletes, always pitching their hardest when the going got toughest. Their teamwork and determination was never at a loss, and in spite of a long, disappointing season they always seemed ready to give it another go!

Benton Harbor, the number one team in the state in class A, shows three good reasons for its success this year. Paul Somers lacks inches in this scramble for a rebound.

Junior Varsity Lacking in Depth

The Junior Varsity basketball team was hurt by a lack of depth in reserve. With the exception of one, all of the boys were sophomores with only freshman experience. Coach Ivan Gillespie knows what the squad needs to work on in the future, and if the boys practice well they should have a lot of potential for the '63-'64 season. Although the team lacked height and size, the boys made up for it with their aggressiveness.

Trojan Skiers Sweep 1963 Regionals

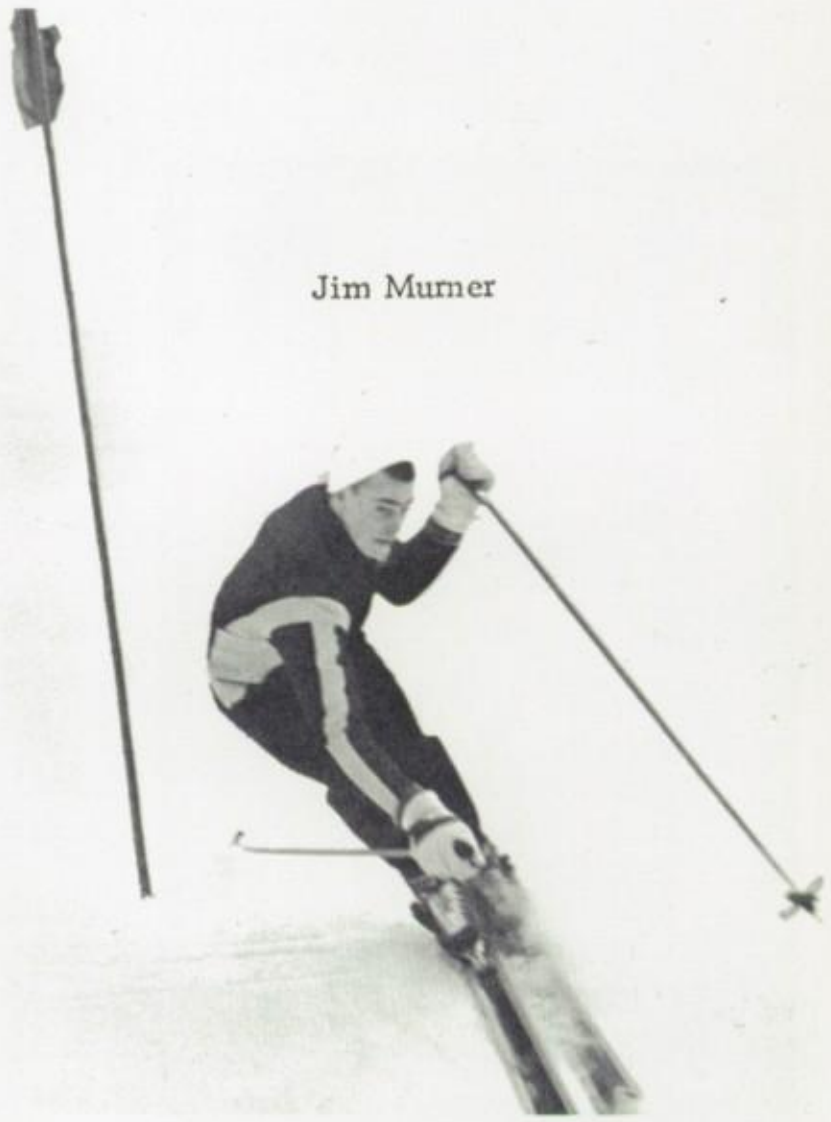
Regional Champs — Boys

The 1963 boys' ski squad performed one of the most outstanding feats ever accomplished in the skiing department of TCHS. Starting the season with only three returning lettermen, the boys' team managed to ski to a victory in the Lower Peninsula Ski Regionals held at Hickory Hills. Another reason for giving credit to a job well done, lies in the fact that the squad was predominantly manned by underclassmen. Steve Cornwell was the only senior member of the squad, and will be the only skier lost by graduation. Following this year's victory, the 1964 ski team should have plenty of experience to carry through the year.

Coach Russell Luttinen, completing his second year as varsity pilot, commented that a rigid training schedule was probably what made the difference in this year's outcome. Hardly ever could a ski team member be seen using a tow during practice (unless, of course, Coach Luttinen happened to be looking the other way at the time!)

Jim Murner

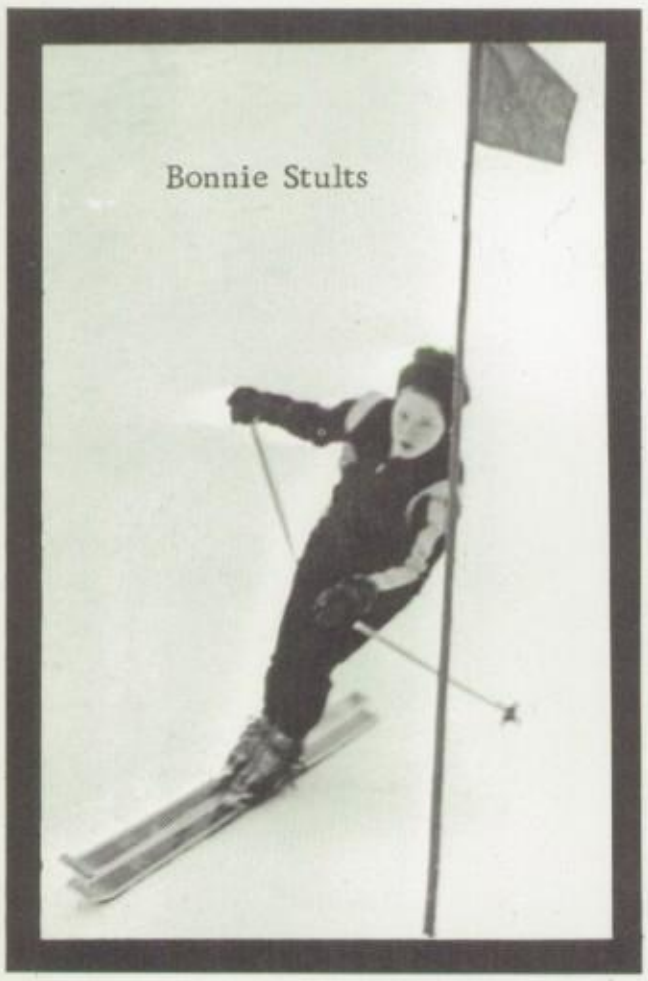


Junior Jim Murner, captain of the boys' team, sprays snow as he rounds a flag on his way to the finish line. Jim will be back next year to spearhead the 1964 ski team.

Season Record — 15 Wins, 2 Losses.

Girls' Ski Team Boasts Perfect Season

Standing next to Coach Russell Luttinen are Marilyn King, Lorna Stulen, Jane Frasier, Beth Perkett, Francie Dorman, Captain Bonnie Mae Stults, and Pam Lantz. Missing when this photo was taken were Valerie Hays and Roberta Kyselka.



Captain Bonnie Stults, sometimes called "The Bee," shows the form that made her one of the outstanding girl skiers in the lower peninsula.

Regional Champs — Girls

Even before the season started and the girls had a chance to show their stuff, it was evident that they had a good team. The entire squad remained intact from last year's championship team, and the possibility of repeating the L.P. Championship was clear.

The only casualty on the squad was the injury of senior Roberta Kyselka, who twisted her knee quite badly and had to spend several weeks on crutches. Despite this loss, the girls literally ran away with every meet they were in. Not once during the season were they seriously threatened by any opposing team.

Following this year's tremendous success, it seems quite likely that next year will be another good one for the girls' squad. However four senior skiers will be lost by graduation, and all of them will be greatly missed. Ending their high school skiing career will be Roberta Kyselka, Beth Perkett, Lorna Stulen, and the team captain Bonnie Stults. In spite of this loss of personnel, there will be a nucleus of letter winners to lead the 1964 squad in search of that coveted trophy.

Girls' Spring Sports

Lead by Miss Draper the girls practice their serves: Judie Polaski, Roberta Kyselka, Barb Novak, Judy Nelson, Ann Dewar, Lucinda Basch, Diane Manty, Carol Tuller, Carolyn Scott, Linda Batdorff, Barb Read, Cheryl Bouman, Sue Noakes, Barb Quick, Justina Springer, and Margaret Johnston.

The girls' spring sports, track and tennis, begin with practice in the gym and then move out-of-doors as soon as the weather permits. Although losing their meets with Benzonia and Pinebrook the tennis team showed great improvement this year. The track team, however, was victorious in their annual triangular meet with Pinebrook and Benzonia.

The rest of the girls watch on as Barb Howard and Sally Erickson jump two hurdles.

The Girls Sports Council: K. Hills, G. Wolcott, S. Erickson, S. Noakes, V. Hays, J. Robinson, S. Dupries, K. Kucera, E. Canfield, S. Schrotenboer, S. Burns. Center: A. Dewar.

Hockey, Football Mark

Meeting once a month, the Girls' Sports Council, headed this year by President Ann Dewar, plans and coordinates the girls' sports activities. The council is composed of four members from the gym classes, one representative from S.C.O.P.E., and one representative from each girls' sports activity. In the fall the council organizes the Hockey Club and schedules several games with Pinebrook, as shown below.

Girls' Sporting Life

Again this year the senior girls triumphed by the score of 14-0 over the junior girls in the annual Powder Puff Football game Nov. 3. During the weeks before the game junior coaches Bob Manthei, Dave Mason, and Dave Wilson tried to lead their "Trojans" to victory. However, it might have been that one extra windsprint which coaches Darryl Bell, John Bowers, and Bud Wilson forced upon the senior girls that helped them to triumph over the juniors.

Once a week after school, girls interested in basketball meet to participate in an inter-class tournament. Although very few juniors turned out, they were able to defeat the sophomores.

TROJAN GIRLS, too, participate in sports during all seasons of the year. In the winter, tumbling, fencing, and basketball are favorite indoor extracurricular activities. This year, a new girls' interclass basketball tournament, was inaugurated.

Touché! This is a common cry when the girls' gym classes practice their fencing.

Francie Dorman asks herself if she can go higher as she tests her skill on the trampoline.

Lamie, S. Barker, R. Hall, P. Tompkins, B. Day, S. Hagelberg. Drum Major Dave Harrison.

The Band

This year's Trojan Band was larger than it has been in recent years. At every home football game, the band was led down the field by drum major Dave Harrison. This was Dave's 3rd and last year as drum major. Through rain and cold the band marched on to entertain the fans during the games.

The band, under the direction of Rodney Cumberworth, also participated in the Pops Concert and the Spring Concert in which they gave excellent performances. The band also took part in the District Festival which was held in February.

The Orchestra

Although the 1962-63 orchestra is small in size, it has more than made up for it in quality. The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Donald Schmaltz, gave an inspiring concert during the Christmas holidays, and also at the Pops Concert and the annual Spring Concert in May. They also participated in Class Day.

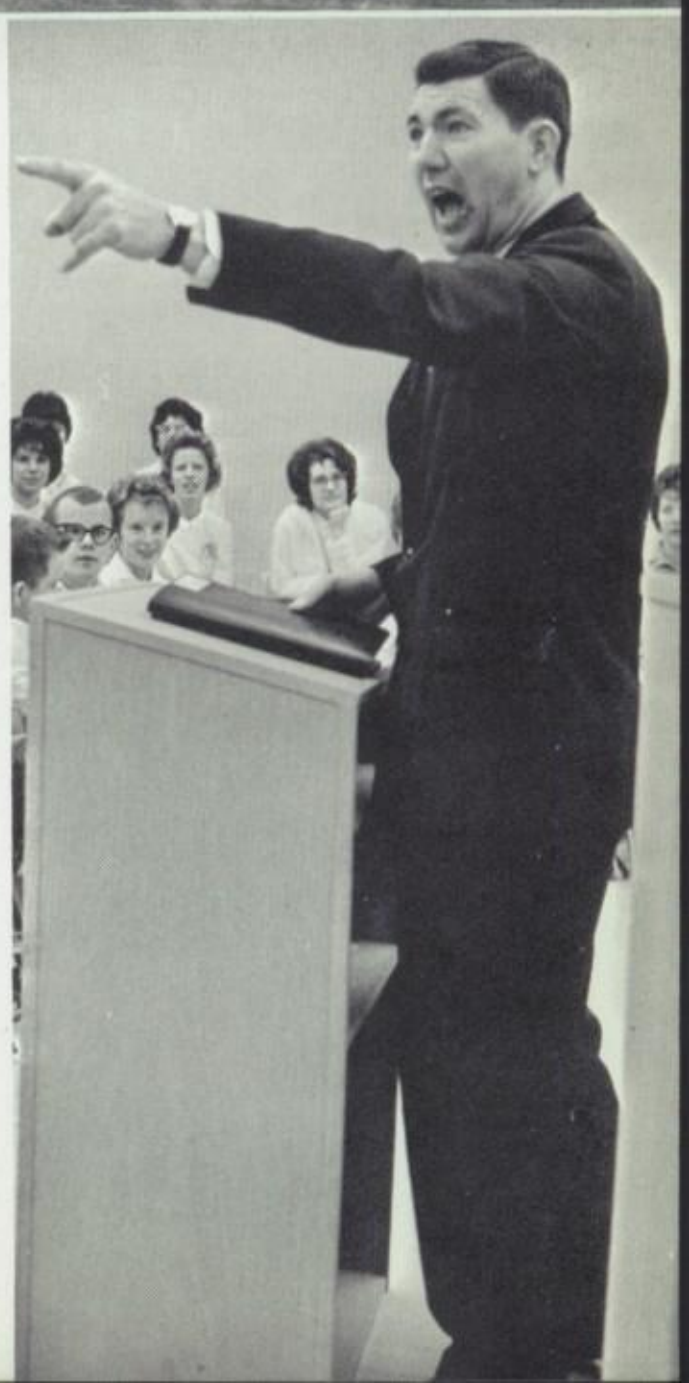
The Choir — 99 Voices

This year's choir, under the direction of their new director Mr. Melvin Larimer, was 99 voices strong. The choir had the privilege of performing the Vivalde Gloria with the Northwestern Symphony Orchestra at Christmas time. The choir performed other Christmas Concerts including a television program. They also participated in the Pops Concert and the Spring Concert in May, and took part in the District Festival. This year the choir also had a Madrigal group which participated in the numerous concerts. Aided by the Thespian troupe and Art department they staged in late February the musical "Carousel."



The Glee Club — 39 Girls

The Traverse City Senior High Girls' Glee Club consisted of 39 hard-working girls. The Glee Club members took part in such concerts as the Christmas Concert, the Pops Concert, the Spring Concert, and the District Festival. The Girls' Glee Club also helped the choir during the operetta. They were a big help behind the scenes.

"Carousel" unfolds a strange and beautiful love story, told in unforgettable songs from the pens of Rodgers and Hammerstein. Lovers walk the rocky Maine shores, sailors sing of the sea, townfolk gather for a gay clambake, and life and death are viewed from a typically New England heaven.

Long hours of hard work went into the production of "Carousel," and many people were involved in making this production a reality. The choreography was done by Miss Joy King, orchestra production was under Director Donald Schmalz, the scenery was designed by Richard Davis, the costuming was supervised by Mrs. Ivy Rumble, the acting was directed by Mr. Garwood Hanson, and the vocal direction was done by Choral Director Mel Larimer. The principal parts were double-cast, with the students splitting performances.

Thespies Carry on

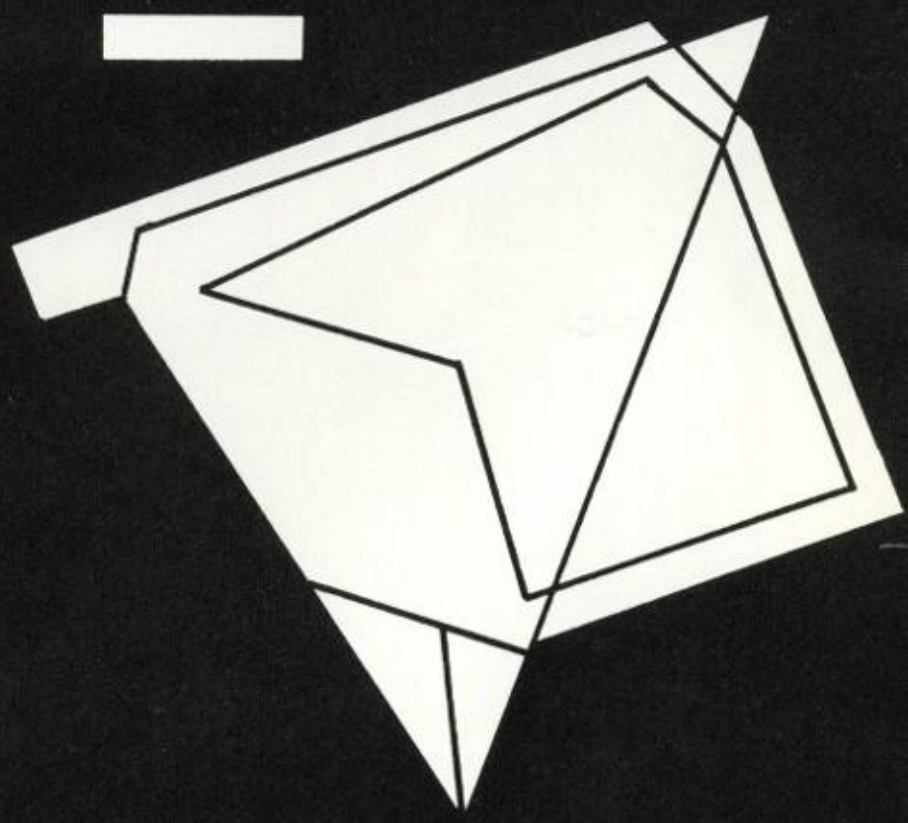
Nan Wilder . . . . . president
Tom Smith . . . . . vice-president
Helen Hunsberger . . . . . treasurer
Ruth Cooley . . . . . secretary

Even though there will be only one straight dramatic production this year, in the form of a Senior Class-sponsored-school play, the Thespians still remain an active T.C.H.S. group. The play chosen was "Thunder on Sycamore Street" by Reginald Rose. It is a contemporary three-act dramatic play, casting 18 students, ten girls and eight boys. The plot is about an ex-convict who moves into an upstanding community where he and his family are rejected because of his past record.

These drama enthusiasts, the Thespians, are still working to become a recognized branch of the National Thespians Society. During the first semester the group lacked an advisor, but, undaunted, reorganized their group. For this undying spirit they deserve the school's acknowledgement.

Nan Wilder and Mr. Woody Hansen, Thespians' advisor, plan second semester activities.

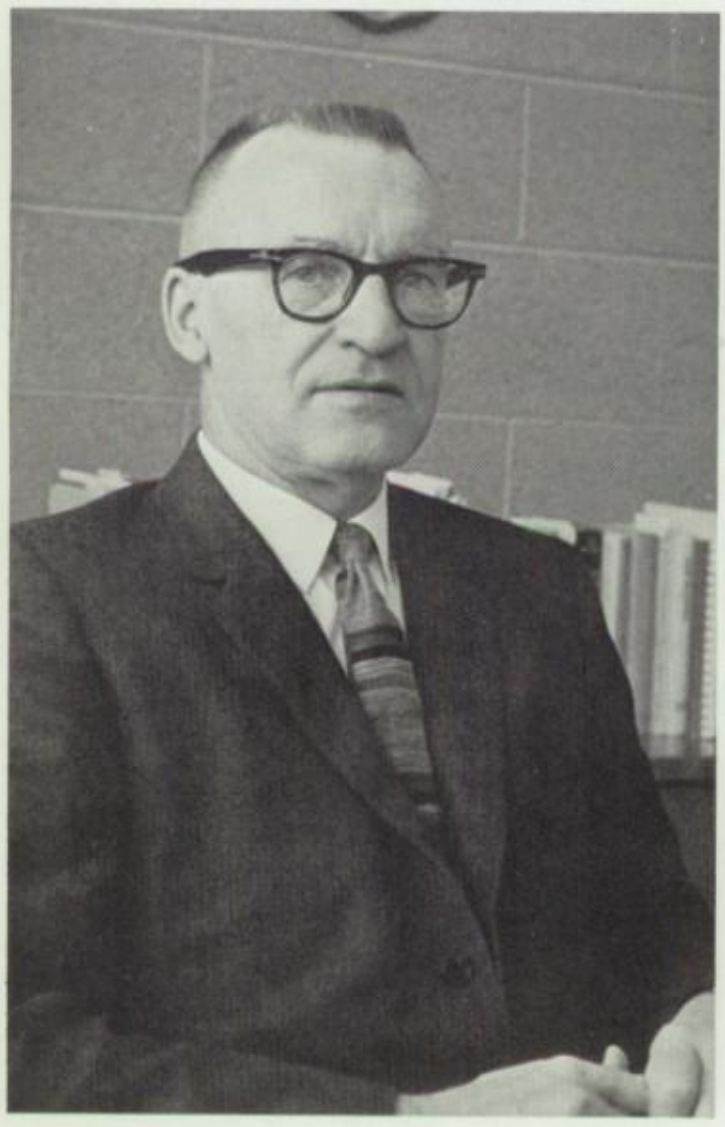
Academics



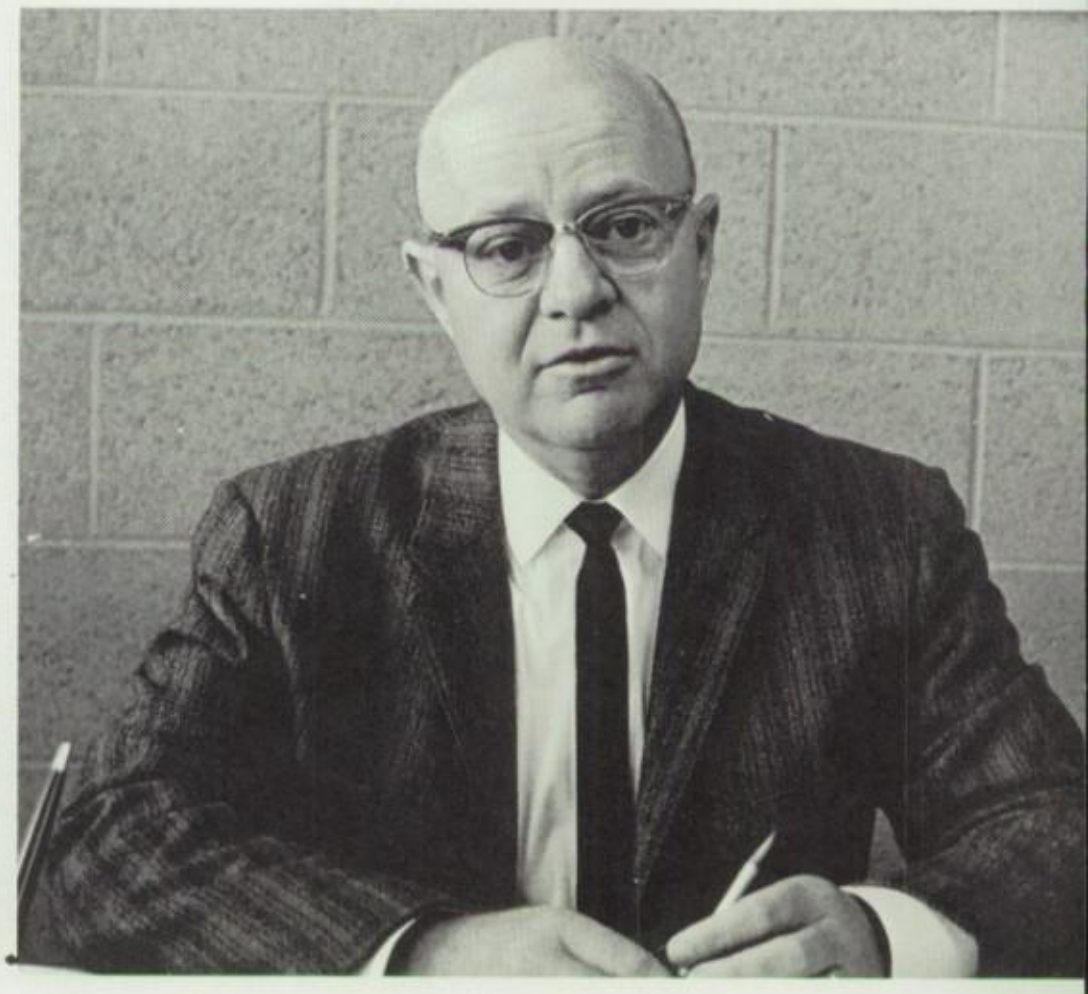
Mr. William W. Novak, B.S., M.A., Superintendent of Schools, keeps the school system running smoothly.

TCHS's administrative leaders work many hours to better student and faculty relations. Their aim is to know school difficulties and solve them. Through their devotion to our school, they have justly earned the respect and admiration of the students.

Administration



Assistant Superintendent, for business affairs, Mr. Garland House, B.S., works closely with Mr. Novak.

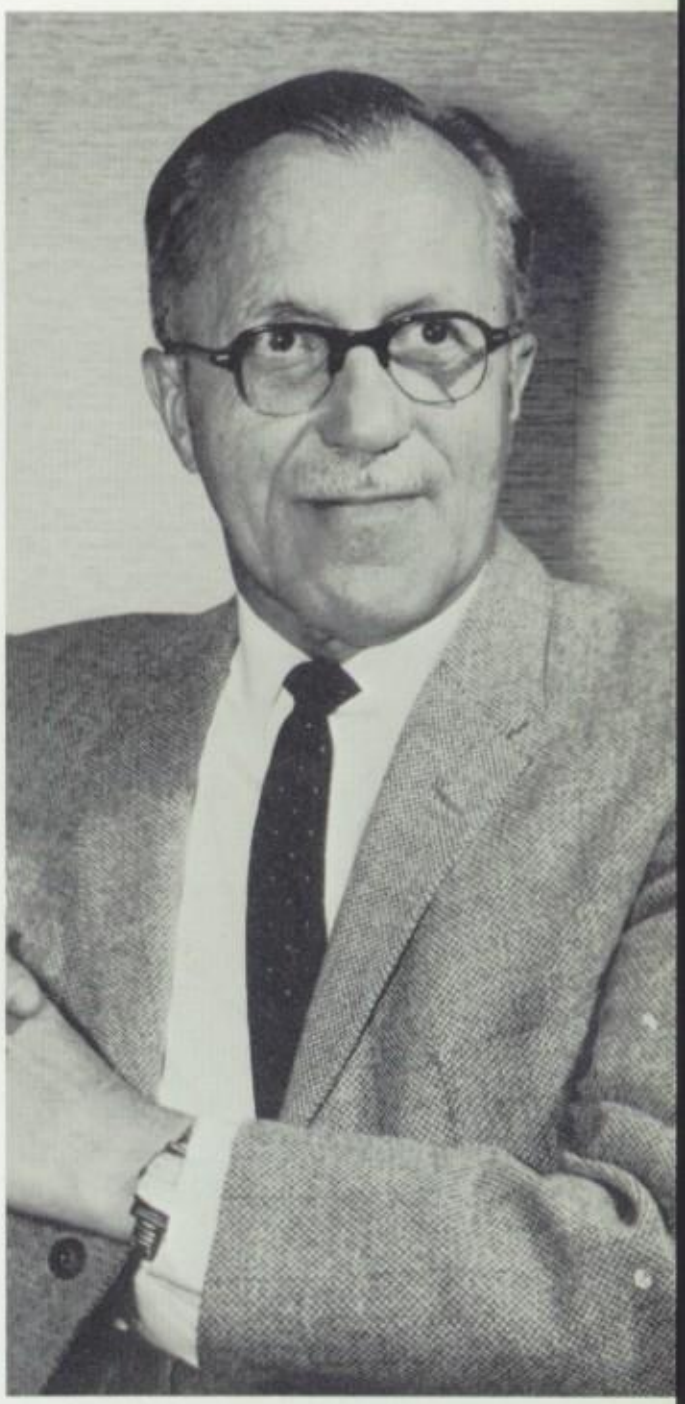


Mr. Robert Johnston, M.S., principal of TCHS, pauses from his work as a devoted and understanding principal.

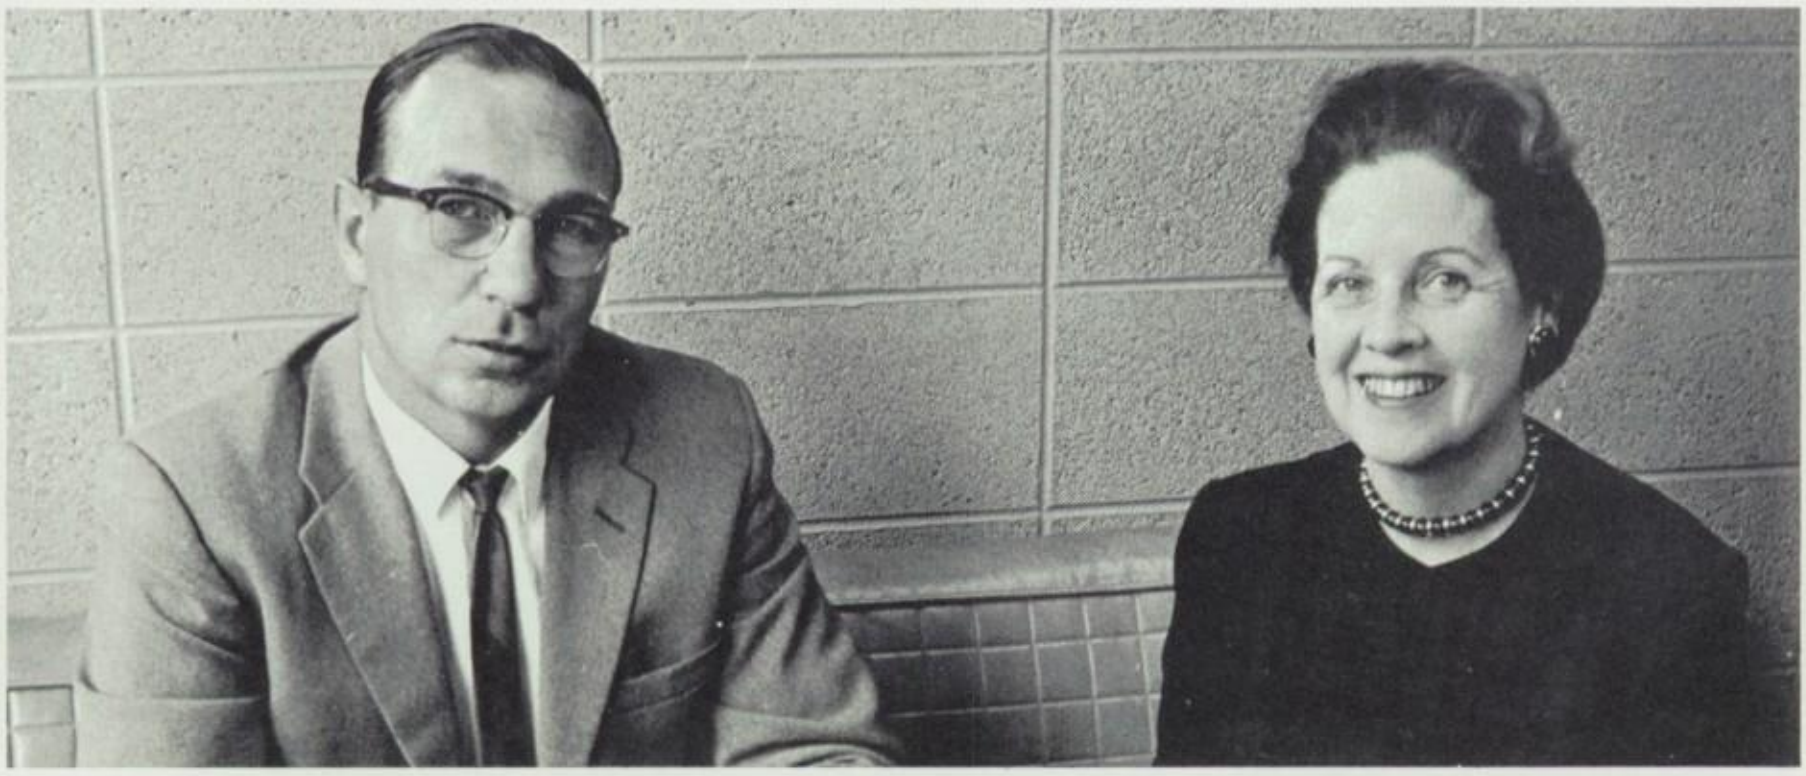
Mr. Philip Krull, A.B., M.A., assistant principal, confers with a student on a problem. Mr. Krull heads the junior building and works as boys counselor.

Is Their Concern

The assistant principals compose a vital part of the school system in their work as attendance takers, counselors, and advisors. We at TCHS are indebted to their willingness to keep harmony between the student body and the faculty.



Mr. Dugald Munro, A.B., assistant principal and attendance taker at sophomore building, finds time for the camera.



Mrs. Ellabeth Smethells, B.A., M.A., assistant principal, girls counselor, and Mr. Ed Schuknecht, B.S., attendance taker, work together to run senior building.

Mrs. Helen Burkholder, B.S., counseling, helps students to plan schedules which will influence their future.

Because high school is a vital step in one's life, students need apt instruction along its path. TCHS is fortunate in having counselors who work to solve the student's present problems and eliminate future ones The help, sympathy, and assurance they provide enable students to realistically face the future.

Guidance for Present and Future

Mrs. Ellabeth Smethells, B.A., M.A., helps Sandy Snyder with college admission plans.

Uniting School Organizations

Rick Cottom, Matt Darrow, John Sebright, Glenn Merchant, Pam Burrows, Darryl Bell, Mr. William Novak, John Bowers, Ron Heffelfinger, Marcia Stehower, Judy Robinson, Barb Novak, Beth Perkett, and Terry Lautner make up the Superintendent's Council whose main objective is to keep the administration informed on student views.

SUPERINTENDENT'S COUNCIL

The Superintendent's Council heads TCHS school government. The council is composed of the presidents of school organizations, class presidents, and the journalism editors. These students meet with Superintendent Novak to discuss and solve school difficulties. The council comprises another link between the administration and students.

English Improves the

Mrs. Mildred Feague, A.B., M.S., High School Red Cross, Mrs. Elizabeth Parker, A.B., Challenger, Mr. Terry Ebright, A.B., sophomore football coach.

If one has the power of words he holds the key to future knowledge. The English courses at TCHS aim to provide each student with an understanding of the English language. This basis of understanding may suffice or provide a foundation for future careers. The speech classes teach verbal use of language. These courses provide the student with actual experiences in using English, experiences much like he will confront in later life.

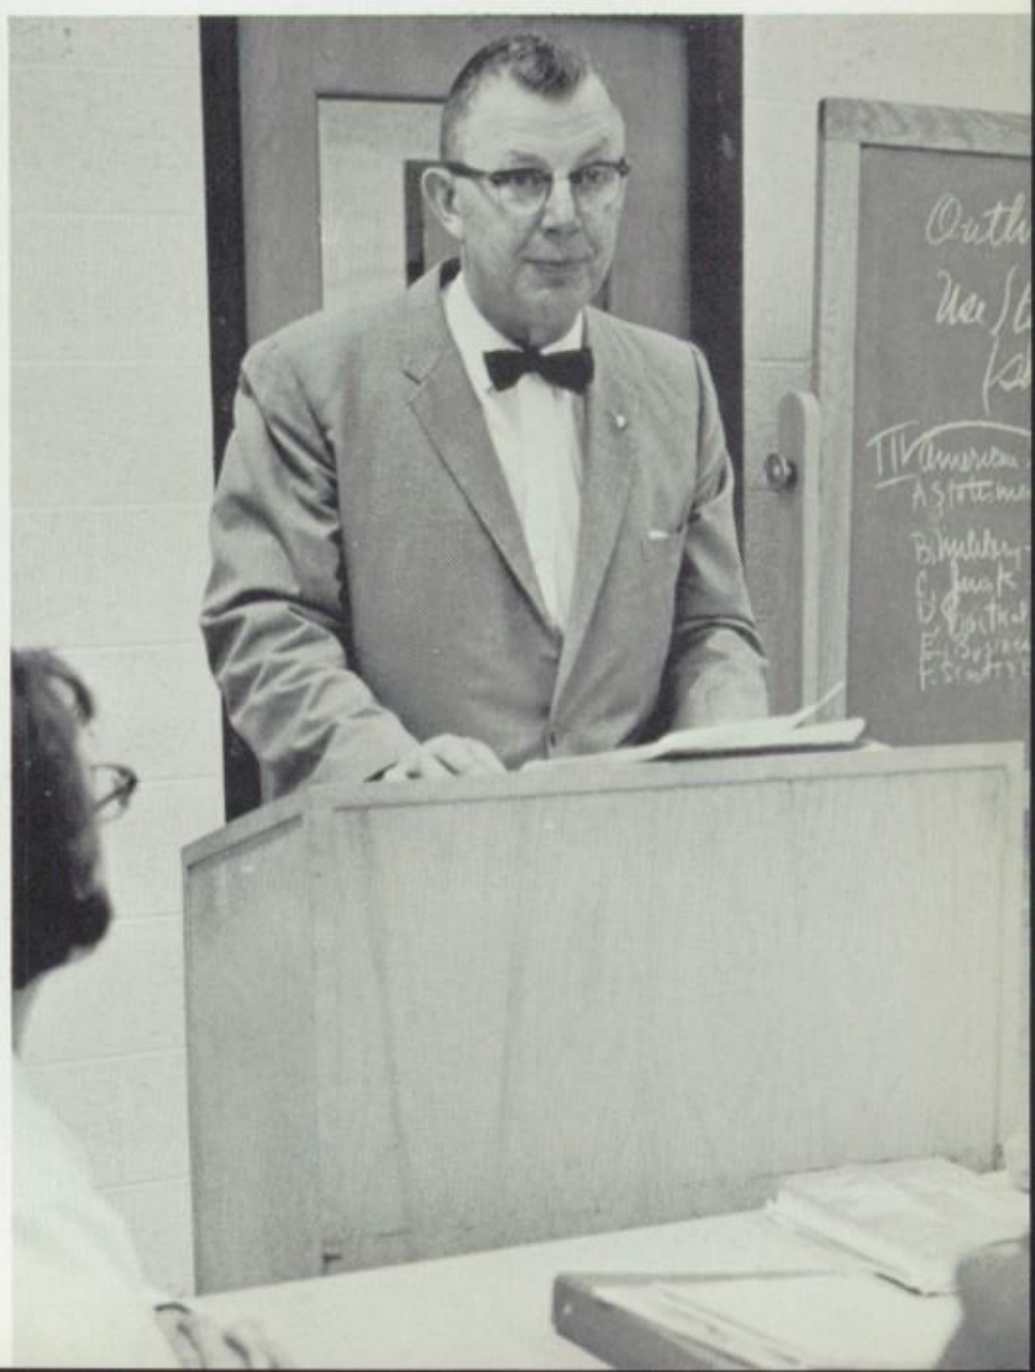
Mrs. Cynthia Russell, B.A., Miss Sharon Youker, B.A., Miss Joy King, B.A., M.A. have sophomore English classrooms.

Mr. Lynn Salathiel, A.B., M.A., sophomore football coach, Mrs. Lynn Scott, A.B., came to the English department this year.

Mastery of Basic Skills

Mrs. Wynn Bade, A.B., M.A., lectures students on the finer points of the English language.

Mr. Williams, A.B., M.A., Press Club, Pines, Quill and Scroll, Black and Gold, spends much of his time helping students develop journalism skills.



Mr. Walter Oberlin, B.A., coaching; teaches students humanities, sociology, and is part of team teachers in government. Here Mr. Oberlin pauses in front of humanities paintings.

Mr. Arthur Schubert, B.A., AFS, UN, Senior Advisor; Mr. Norman Pollman, B.A., D.S., Pep Club; Mrs. Elaine Beardsley, B.A., M.A.; discuss developments in world history and government.

Knowledge

Mr. Robert Bacon, B.A.; Mr. Richard Crampton, B.A.; Mr. Thomas Lynch, B.S., B.A.; teach American History.

TCHS offers a diverse program in the arts, social studies, languages, and music. Students are taught these courses, which prepare them to meet the world with knowledge and understanding.

Mrs. Gertrude Onker, B.A., M.A., French Choir, demonstrates the use of the language laboratory. Mrs. Onker heads the language department.

Mr. Paul Welch, B.A., M.A., returning from a year's leave of absence, instructs a student in art class. In TCHS students are taught appreciation as well as application of art.

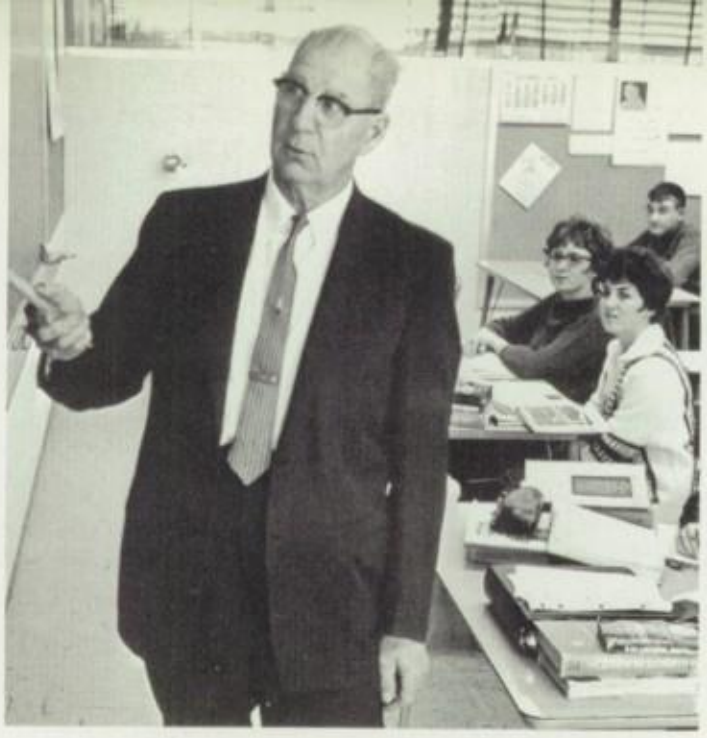
Miss Pearl Faist, B.A., M.A., National Honor Society, and her assistant Mrs. Mary Guildice, pause from their work in the library.

for Culture

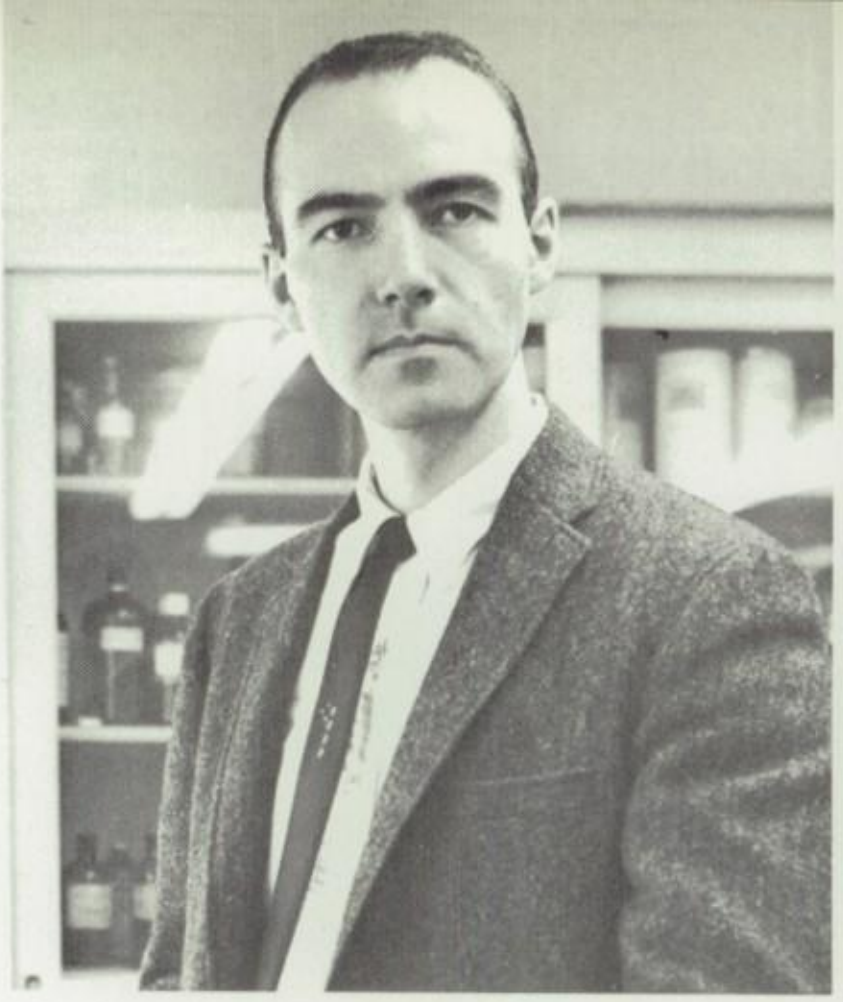
Mr. Melvin Larimer, B.A., M.A., coming this year from Pontiac Northern, directs the TCHS choir and glee clubs, which are related by concert programs through the season.

Mrs. Cynthia Russell, B.A.; Mr. Robert Jansson, B.A.; Mrs. Mildred Feague, B.A. M.A. Mrs. Russell teaches English and Spanish. Mr. Jansson teaches Spanish. Mrs. Feague teaches Latin and sponsors the Red Cross club.

Mr. Donald Schmaltz, B.M., M.M., and Mr. Rodney Cumberworth, B.M., direct the orchestra and the band. The men divide their time between senior and junior high.

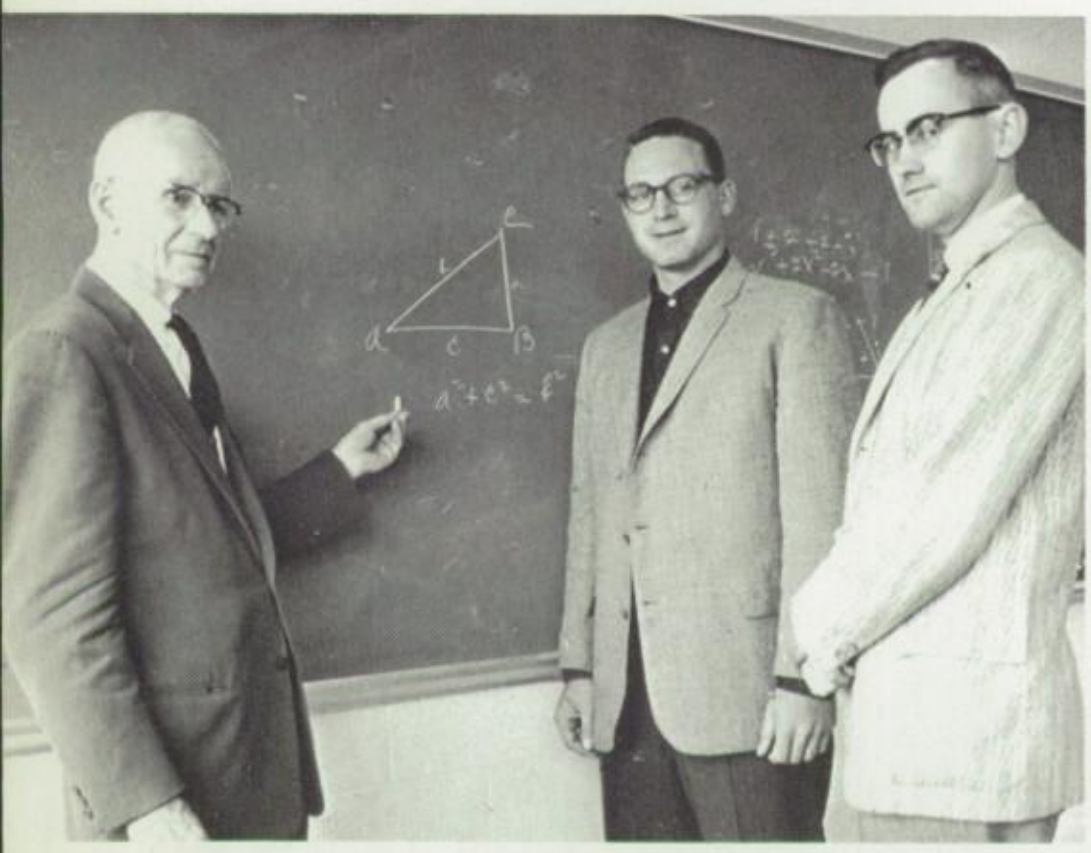


Math chairman J. C. Allen, M.A., shows students the basic principles of geometry.



Mr. Robert Rudd, A.B., Camera Club, teaches students the science of chemistry.

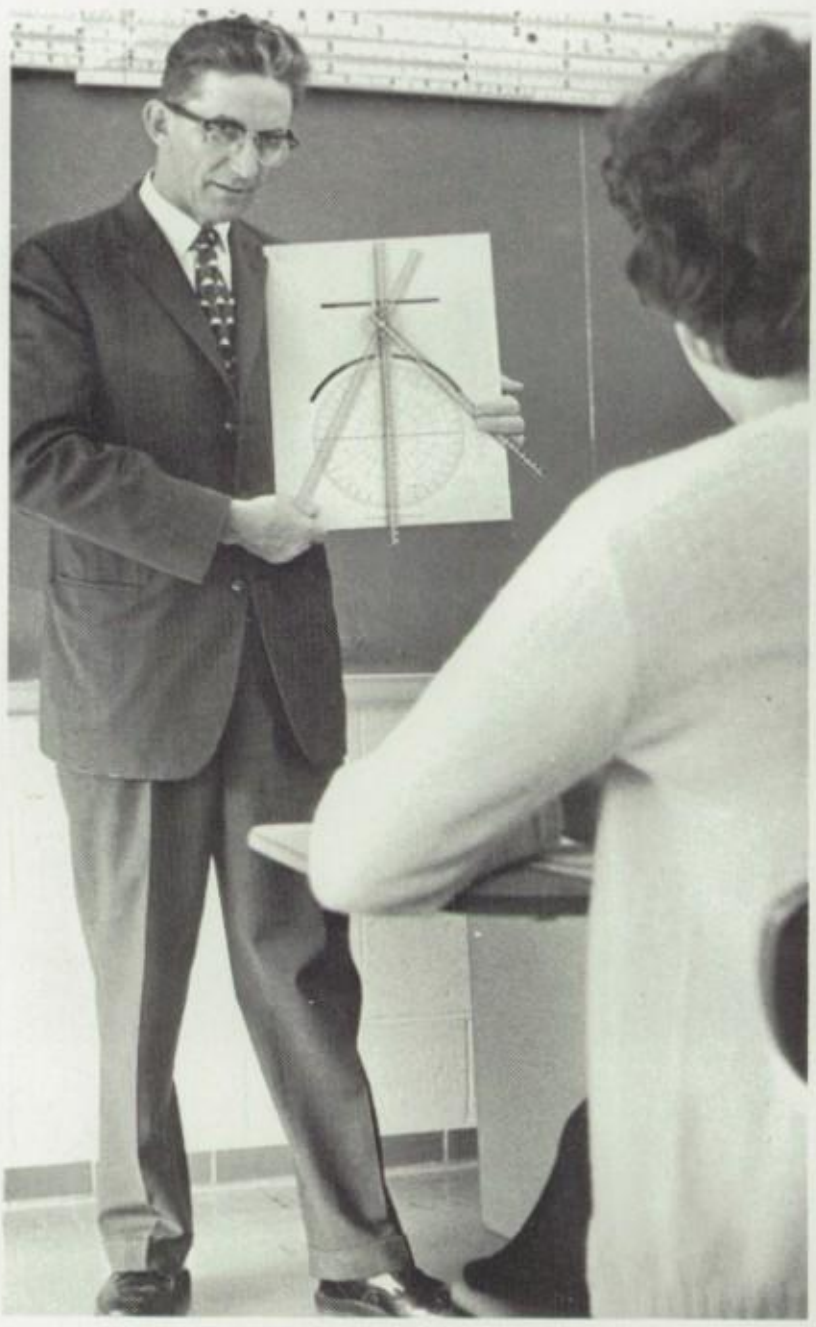
Science and Mathematics



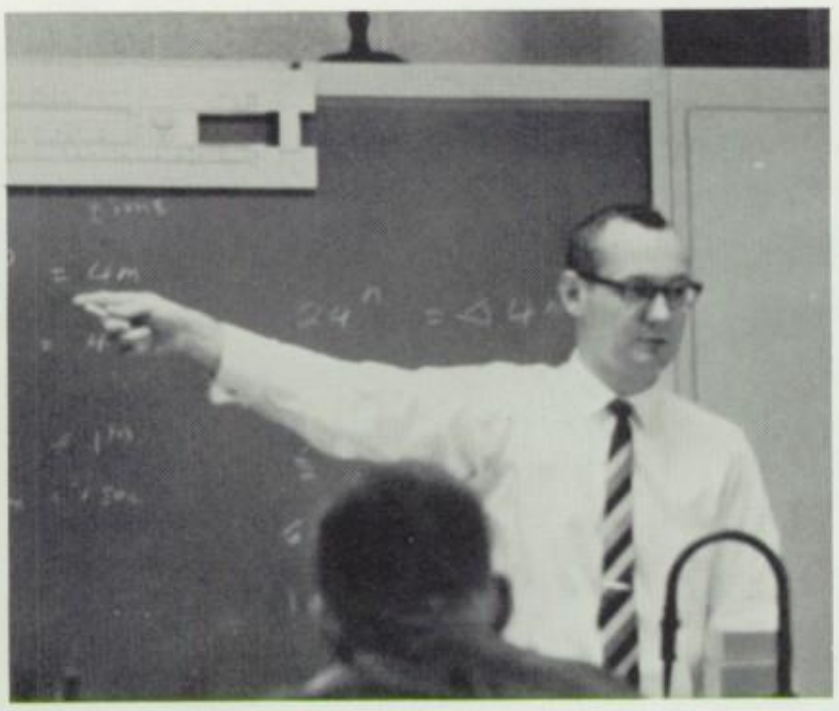
Mr. Lars Hockstad, A.B., M.A., Mr. David Dye, B.Ed., Mr. Ronald Johnson.

Trigonometry, geometry, algebra I and II, and math include the courses offered in the mathematics department.

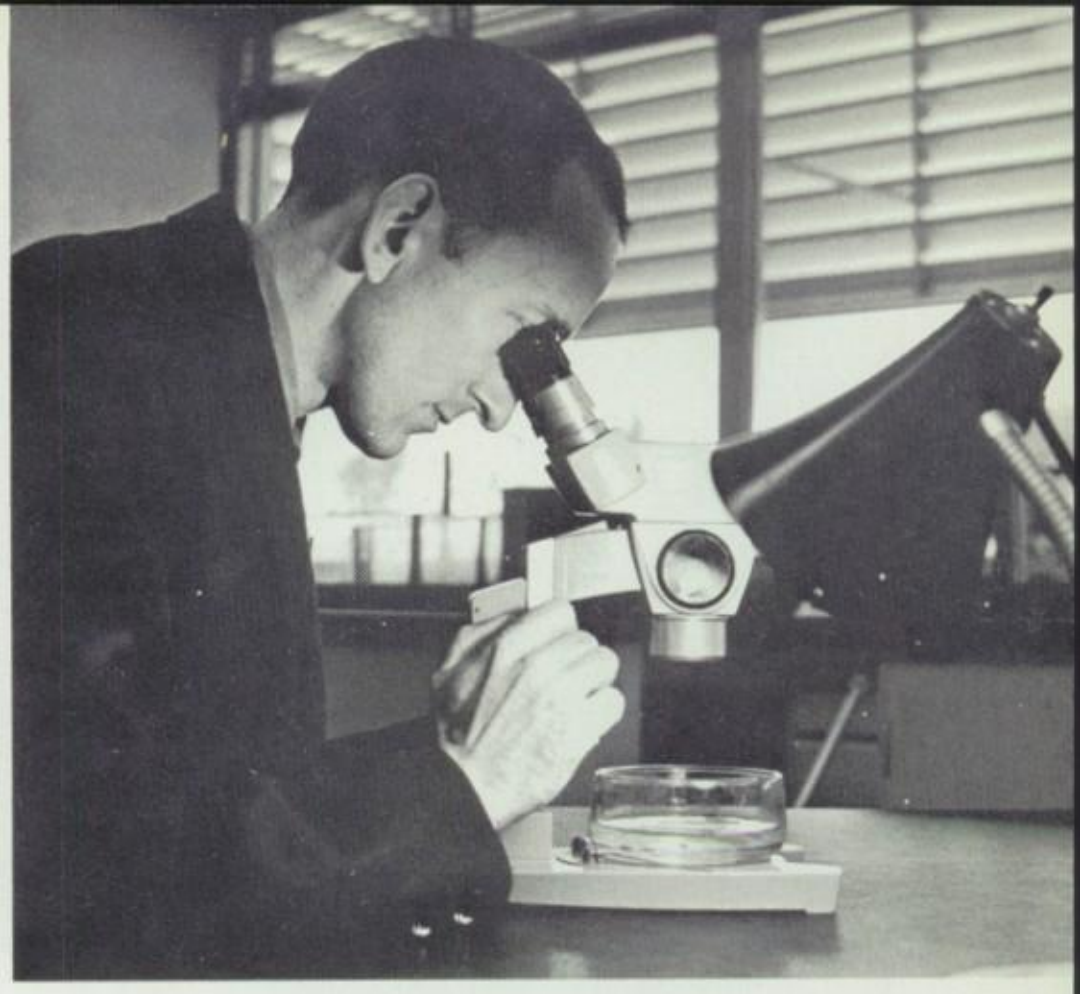
In the field of science, biology provides a basis of scientific exploration and the foundation for later studies. Students may advance to chemistry, physiology, advanced chemistry, and physics. Physics and astrophysics courses provide the "ultimates" in our technical courses.



Mr. Glenn Sands, B.S., M.A., instructs a student on the use of a mathematical tool as he stands before the giant slide rule.



Mr. Robert Elliot, B.S., shows students the latest in the field of astrophysics, a new course at TCHS.

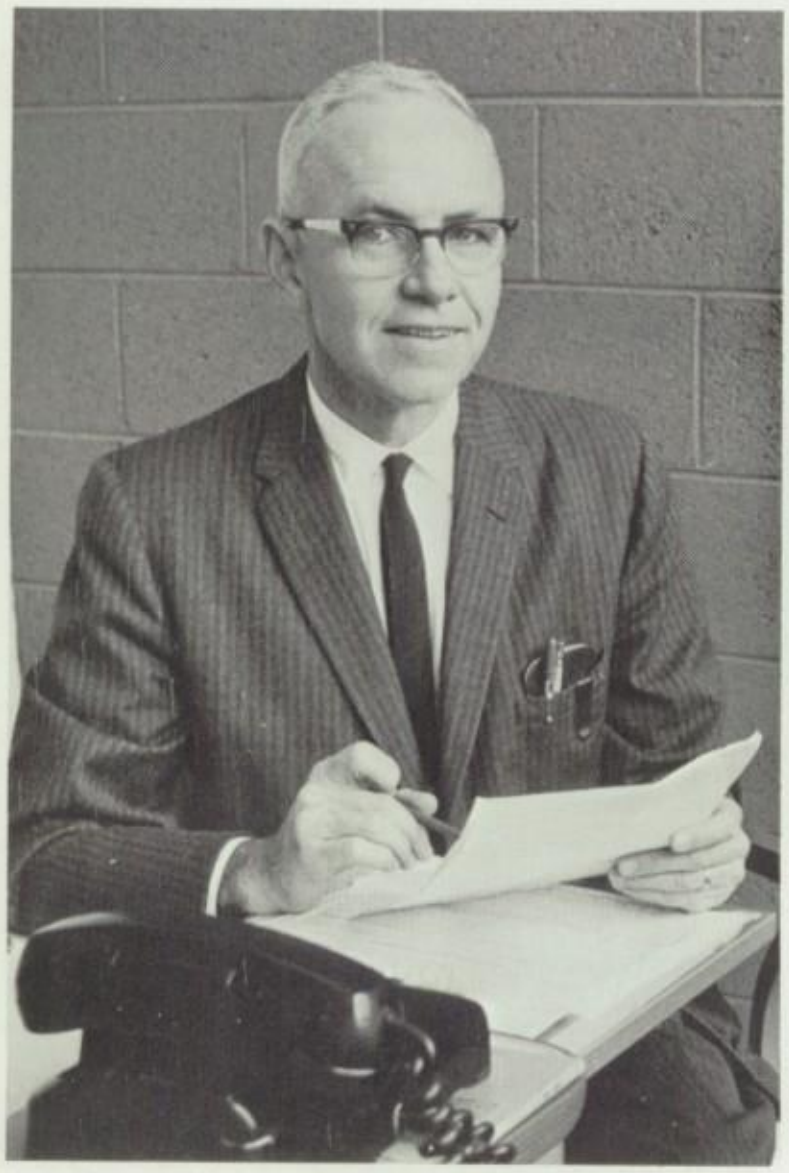


Mr. Richard McNeill, B.S., M.S., demonstrates correct microscope viewing form. He teaches biology and physiology.

Provide Intellectual Challenge

Mr. Edward Merchant, B.S.; Mr. James Ooley, B.S.; Mr. Richard Gertz, B.S., M.A.; Mr. Philip Krull, A.B., M.A.; Mr. Dugald Munro, A.B.; Mr. Richard McNeill, B.S., M.S. These men teach biology, chemistry, natural science, and physiology.

Vocational Courses for



Mr. Herbert Olson, M.A., heads the vocational department. Mr. Olson also co-ordinates the co-op program. In Co-op ambitious students are given a part of the school day to work at various outside jobs. This training provides actual experience for a business career. "Mr. O" is also director of the adult evening school.

David Dye, B.Ed., Allen Lockman, B.S., and Edward Schuknecht, B.S., teach basic driving rules and safety measures, training vital for future drivers, resulting in a driver training certificate. They conduct large summer classes and also operate adult evening instruction.

Mr. Ivan Gillespie, B.S., Mr. Clyde Grachen, B.S., and Mr. Norman Trahair, B.A., teach industrial arts, drafting, and auto shop, and also are adult night school instructors.

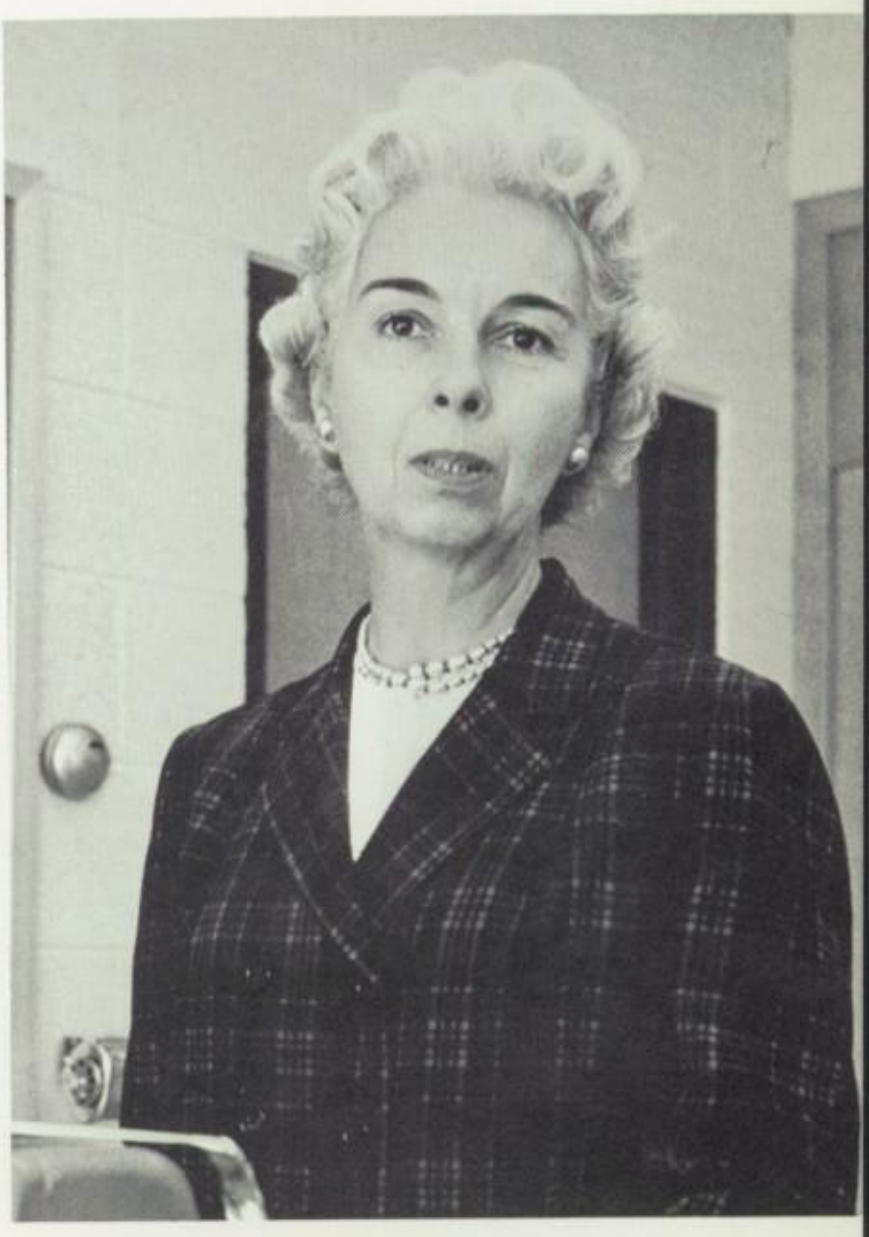
Mr. Wilbur McMath, B.S., M.S., M.A., Future Farmers Chapter advisor, divides his time between senior and junior high in teaching agriculture. He also instructs "ag" at Northwestern Michigan College.

Developed Skills

Mrs. Margaret Glommen, B.S., M.A., the home economics teacher, demonstrates the use of a new oven to perspective homemakers. She also has clothing classes and brings in outside resource persons for two family relations classes.

Mesdames Lucille Clawson, B.S., Geraldine Kinney, A.B., and Mr. George Kinsman, A.B., M.Ed., teach commercial courses to prepare students for life in the business world. "Mr. K" is faculty ticket manager. Most commercial teachers also handle night adult classes.

Mr. Dean Davenport, B.S., M.A., head basketball coach; Miss Mary Jane Draper, B.S., M.A., head of S.C.O.P.E., S.C.O.R.E., and the cheerleaders; and Mr. Irving Menzel, B.S., A.B., athletic director.



Miss Nellie Smith, B.S., teaches typing and shorthand. This knowledge of typing is a necessary skill for every student, while "the pothooks" are a more specialized skill.

Mrs. "Marty" Schrotenboer presents Superintendent William Novak with the day's schedule.

Mrs. Florence Brulard and Miss Reva Krumlauf, Principal Robert Johnston's secretary, greet TCHS students with friendly smiles.

Mrs. Shirley Buchan, Mrs. Geraldine Selkirk, Mrs. Anita Frisby, Mrs. Delcia Lutz, and Mrs. Ida Tompkins prepare to serve the Traverse City school system.

Friendly, Efficient Service

Nurse Mabel Wade serves the general health needs of the school.

Mrs. Beverly Kaiser, Vocational Director Herbert Olson's secretary, pauses from work with the co-op program.

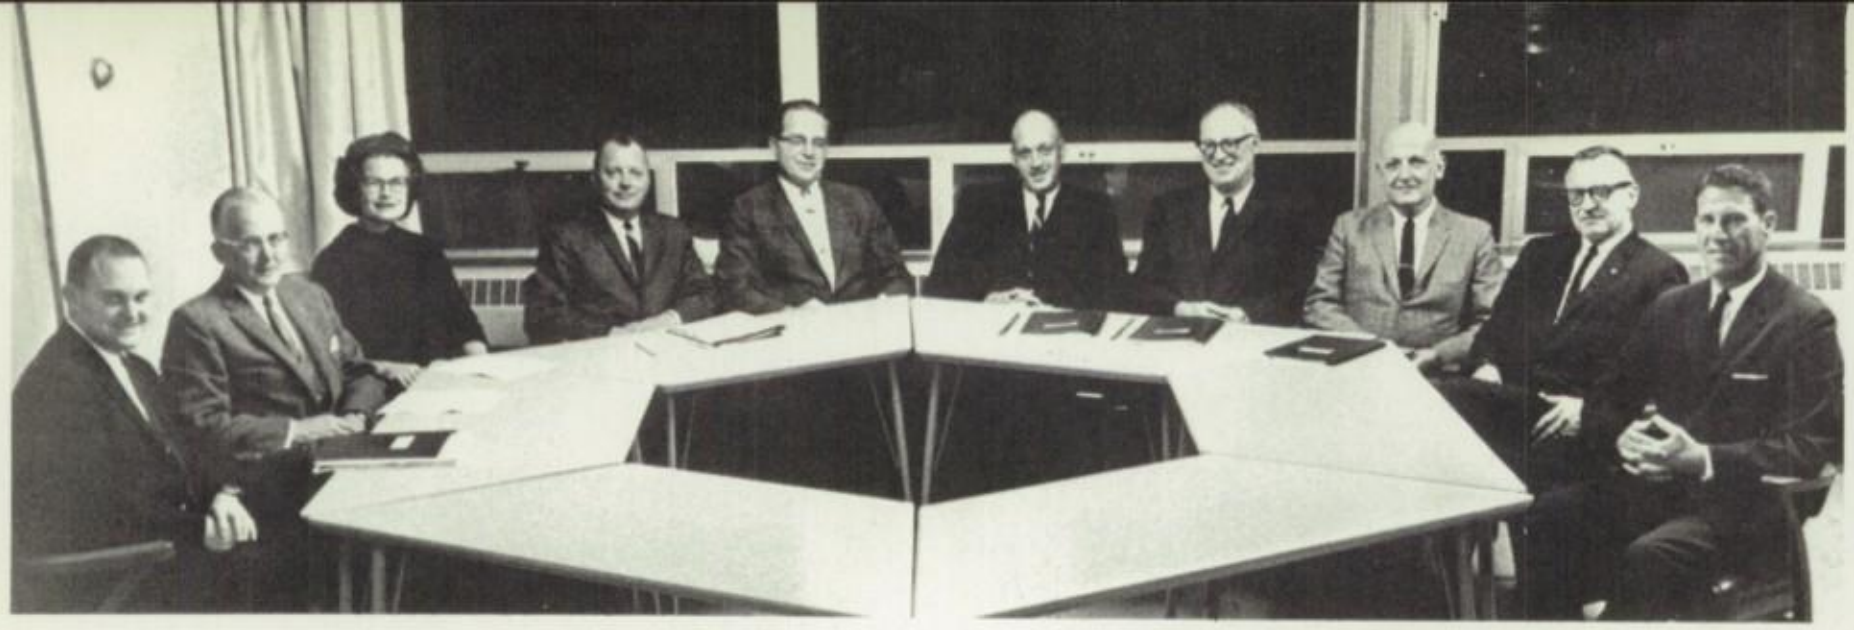
Mrs. Grace Hemingway, Mrs. Doris Wilkins, Mrs. Jennie Esman, Mrs. Annamae Eiken, Mrs. Myrtle Goddard, Mrs. Irene Corpe, and Mrs. Marvel Krumloft prepare approximately 600 meals a day for hungry students and teachers. Mrs. Eiken heads the staff.

Mr. John Youker, Mr. George Wilson, Mr. Ora Bright, Mr. Floyd Ritter, Mr. Robert Ludington, and Mr. Richard Merchant are the TCHS custodians. Here Mr. Youker, head janitor, explains a problem to his staff.

For the Betterment of T.C.H.S.

TCHS is fortunate to have these helpful people who often extend their services beyond the call of duty. Their services help to co ordinate school functions. Students, teachers, and members of the community are helped by them. Working together these people are a vital function of TCHS.

Mrs. Odelia Eikey, Mrs. Ellen Cunningham, Mrs. Ida Linderleaf, and Mrs. Eva Coleman work to keep the beautiful buildings of TCHS in top form as school matrons.



Mr. Julius Beers; Mr. Harry Running; Mrs. John Parsons; Mr. Richard Harwood, president; Dr. Edward Stokes, treasurer; Mr. Dale Wares, vice-president; Mr. Bruce Graham; Mr. William Smith, secretary; Assistant Superintendent Garland L. House; and Superintendent William W. Novak begin a School Board meeting.

Community Works with School

The Parent Teacher Student Association's goal, to achieve the aims of high school education, was advanced this year with open houses, parent-teacher clinics, and discussions of teen problems.

The School Board meets bi-monthly to discuss school policies. They spend over one million yearly operating our two and a-half million dollar system, largest school district in Northwestern Michigan. An increased enrollment has brought plans of building. These problems and many more are part of the board's business.

SEATED: Mrs. Norbert Wigman, second vice-president; Mrs. Carl Bjork, historian; Mrs. Carl Johnson, secretary; STANDING: Mrs. George Dague, first vice-president; Mr. A. H. Stults, president; Mrs. Harvey Bays, treasurer; PTSA officers plan the next general meeting.

Sophomores

Class of "65"

One of the first things the sophs did as a unified class was to elect officers. Those elected were: Ron Heffelfinger, president; Lennie Hawley, vice-president; Elaine Johnson, treasurer; and Jean Bjork, secretary. Ordering class rings and heading the annual magazine sale were two important jobs undertaken by the new officers. They also headed a drive to collect food for Christmas baskets for needy families.

This year for the first time a separate sophomore football team was formed and ended the season with a 2-2 record. Margie Budnik, Cathy Hagen, Kay Youker, Nancy Hadley, and alternate Judy Gould cheered the team through the year as JV cheerleaders.

The youngest class took an active part in all the school activities. They worked on the Challenger and the Black and Gold; formed a large part of Pep Club; enthusiastically participated in Pep-a-Rama; and supported the teams at all the games.

Juniors

Class of '64

Having successfully survived their sophomore year, the junior class found themselves once again in the high school whirl. Things began happening right away for the class of '64.

In September elections were the most important event. Rick Cottom was re-elected president and the three new officers, Dick Kaley, Mary Dorman, and Jim Milliken, were chosen as vice-president, secretary, and treasurer respectively. That month also held a disappointment in that the junior class play would be delayed because the new speech teacher, Mr. Garwood P. Hanson, had not yet arrived.

October was also important for the middle class. They received their class rings, and eleven juniors were accepted in the National Honor Society.

The junior girls were defeated in the powder puff football game. Bob Manthei, John Haberlein, Beth Moulton, and Sue Noakes were named A.F.S. finalists.

Under the leadership of the officers, committees were formed to begin work on the junior prom. This bolstered the claim that it was the best prom ever planned.

The end of the year found the juniors anxious for vacation, but looking forward to being the "big fish" next year.

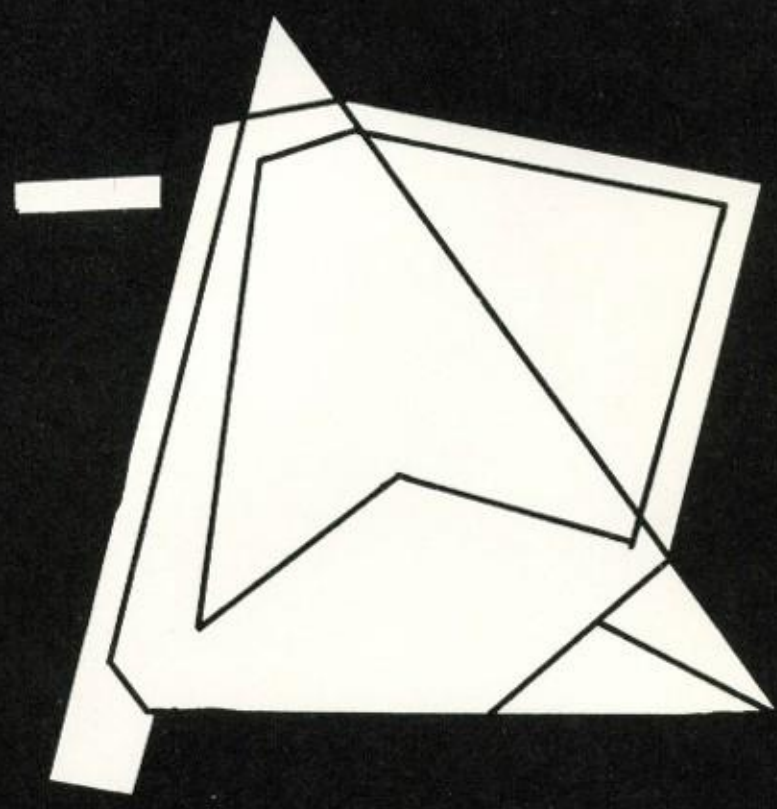
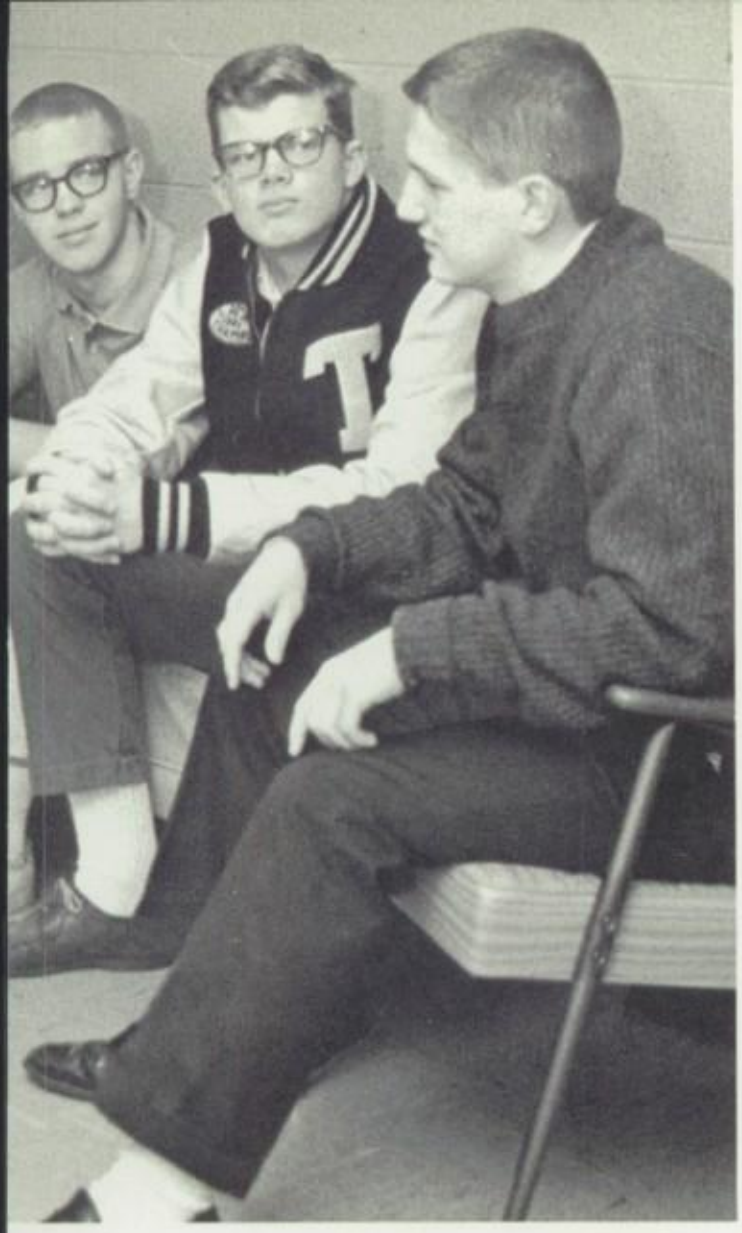
Seniors



The Senior Council discusses plans for the Senior Prom: Kent Walton, Bonnie Stults, Pat Hilty, John Sebright, Joni Komerska, Darryl Bell, Jack Murchie, and Paul Needham.

Leading the Class of '63 through its last year were Pat Fisher, secretary; Ed Erlandson, vice-president; Marg Meach, treasurer; and Glenn Merchant, president.



Class of '63

In the fall of '62 we moved into the long coveted Senior Building. During our senior year we were capably led by governor, John Bowers; president, Glenn Merchant; vice-president, Ed Erlandson; secretary, Pat Fisher; and treasurer, Marg Meach.

Our foreign exchange student, Sharon Kubesh, was unable to go abroad because of a shortage of homes available. In November we welcomed Nobuko Sagawa, an AFS exchange student from Nara, Japan. Later, in December we welcomed another exchange student, Jose Hernandez, who is here on the Council of Churches program from Mexico.

Soon after school resumed session in the fall it was announced that Matt Darrow, Jim Bradford, Beth Perkett, and Sally Wilbur had received honorable mention in the National Scholarship Test. Darryl Bell and John Bowers earned semi-finalist rankings. These tests are very helpful in assessing one's aptitude for college work.

Our Christmas Formal, "Misty Pink Soiree" was beautifully executed under the leadership of co-chairmen Bonnie Stults and Paul Needham.

Beth Perkett was selected the Daughters of the American Revolution, from a field of finalists composed of Sharon Kubesh, Shirley Cavitch, Joanne Komerska, and Barbara Novak. Beth was chosen on the basis of dependability, service, patriotism, leadership, and scholarship, by the faculty.

Starring in the musical "Carousel" were seniors Helen Hunsberger, Matt Darrow, and Marilyn Newkirk. "Carousel" was produced in February by the music and art departments.

In athletics the seniors really shone. A nearly perfect season was achieved by the football team, paced by the senior members. John Bowers and Jack Howard were voted most valuable players by the team. Although the basketball record left certain things to be desired, the seniors on the team were invaluable.

Assisting us in every way possible were our advisors Mr. Art Shubert and Mr. Walt Oberlin.

After the Last Deadline —

Dear Reader,

The last deadline has been met, the last workshop is over. There is not much more to do. Perhaps a few proofs to be checked or several letters to write; otherwise there is nothing more. The job has been completed. The staff and I await the result.

It is a strange feeling to be done. It is not a feeling of relief "Gee I'm glad it's over with!," but a feeling of great satisfaction and pride. I am proud of the staff. Each of the members worked as individuals; yet they combined their skills which contributed to the success of the 1963 Pines. They were willing to give up much of their time and effort. This job never could have been done without their combined unity and willingness. It's to you, senior editors: Becky, John, Judy, Mary Jo, Joanne, Shirley, Sally, Marge, Betty, Beth and Marilyn, who deserve the praise and recognition for a job well done.

To next year's editor, Carol Spenceley and her staff: I want to thank you for your cooperation as junior editors this year, and to wish you much success on the 1964 Pines.

Speaking for the staff and myself, I would like to thank our advisor, Mr. A. V. Williams, who has helped us through many trials and tribulations. It is not often you find a person so willing to sacrifice as much time and effort as he has for us this year. Our hats off to you, Mr. Williams!

The production of the Pines includes not only the staff's work, but the combined effort of many people. The staff and I wish to thank you: Mr. Dugald Munro, our faculty photographer; student photographer Bill Smethells; all the portrait photographers--Chuck Baldwin, Bayview, Davis, Bud Moyer, and Lyndon School Photo Inc.; Black and Gold, for their publicity; the Record Eagle, Mr. Ken Bell; and Principal Robert Johnson and his office staff.

Most of all we would like to thank you, the student body, for your cooperation. Good luck and farewell! Thanks to all!

Editor-in-Chief
Pam Burrows

School Song!

"Every highschool has its colors . . . "

Uniting the student body in the Pep assembly finale, the students lift the school song to the rafters, as they are led by the cheerleaders.
